HERMISTON LOCALS

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Challis spent Tuesday visiting in Pendleton.

The Episcopal Guild will meet at the Red Cross room on Thursday, March 14.

H. W. Hoffman of Spokane is here on a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Hoffman, of North Ridge.

The Methodist Ladies Aid will hold a regular work meeting at Mrs. Gunn's Wednesday afternoon of next week.

A. T. Drolshagen, a north of town rancher, returned Monday afternoon from a business trip to Lexington, Oregon.

Mr. J. H. Stroh, head of the local Red Cross, visited with the Red Cross ladies in Pendleton Wednesday and Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Fraser went to Pendleton Thursday, where Mrs. Fraser will receive treatment at St. Anthony's hospital.

Mrs. L. Reeder is recovering nicely from her recent operation, and her many friends hope to see her able to be about again in a short time.

Mrs. Jack Smith of Irrigan passed a pleasant couple of days here the first of the week visiting with her father, C. Chamberlain, and sister, Mrs. T. D. Worster.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Longhorn came home from Pendleton Thursday evening, the lady having been there most of the week undergoing a minor operation at the hospital in that city.

Six candidates were initiated into the mysteries of the local order of Rebekahs last evening. Stanfield's excellent degree team put on the work, after which all enjoyed a big banquet.

C. H. Crandall, who for ten years has been janitor of the local school, and in fact the only janitor the district has ever had, relinquished the job Thursday and is now preparing to go on his 80 acre ranch near Umatilla.

Many homeseekers have kept the reclamation people busy this week enquiring about the land to be thrown open in the third unit, and a large number filed their applications with Project Manager Newell yesterday, the opening day.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McDermed are guests in this city of Mr. and Mrs. M. D. O'Connell while on their way home to Seattle after an extended visit to relatives and friends in Nebraska. Mrs. McDermed is a sister of the editor of The Herald.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. N. MacCulloch and little son Arthur were over from their ranch home at Coolidge, Wash., Wednesday, and after having needed dental work attended to found a little time to visit with their old friends, Mr. and Mrs. M. D. O'Connell.

Nellie, the little four year old daughter of Postmaster and Mrs. J. H. Young, who had a bone in her left arm broken one day last week by being hit by a pivot swing on which she was playing with other children, has almost recovered from the accident.

Rev. L. S. Chapman went to Portland Wednesday, where he passed a couple of days visiting with his son Harry, who is employed in that city. His daughter Miss Nellie accompanied him, going on from Portland to Dayton to pay a visit to her grandmother.

J. H. Henry of Portland has donated to the Hermiston library a very valuable edition in 12 volumes of the "Life of Lincoln," by Nicolay and Hay, the well known authors. These books will be available for circulation, according to Mrs. J. T. Hinkle, president of the library board.

Henry Notz returned Monday from a two weeks' business trip to Baker City. On his way back he stopped at Pendleton and visited Tom Marxen at St. Anthony's hospital, whom he reports as getting along nicely after an operation on one of his limbs to stop congestion of the blood.

Attorney J. T. Hinkle went to Klamath Falls, Ore., Wednesday, being called there in connection with his duties as special assistant to the chief counsel of the reclamation service. An irrigation district is under way of formation on that project, and his work is to discuss the federal contract with a board of directors of the district and arrive at a final agreement before it is submitted to a vote of the people.

Representative Roy W. Ritner has donated a complete set of Oregon laws to the Hermiston library, including three volumes of the Annotated Code and four volumes of the session laws, 1911, 1913, 1915 and 1917. These volumes are very valuable to the community in that any citizen desiring to know what the law is on any subject may consult the books at the library rooms. These books will not be circulated but will be kept constantly on hand for reference. Mr. Ritner takes a very active interest in public library matters and has been a leader and sponsor in the legislature for the progressive library legislation of the past four years.

Mrs. J. S. West passed a pleasant day Monday in Echo visiting with her son Newel, who holds the position of telegraph operator in the O.-W. R. & N. offices in that city.

James Eddie, who operates a ranch a few miles north of Hermiston, received a letter from Scotland last week advising him of the death of his brother John, who was a large merchant in the city of Glasgow.

The committee of the Umatilla war council in this district precinct is composed of Mayor F. C. McKenzie, F. B. Swayze and Thomas Campbell, all of whom were at the organization of the council in Pendleton Friday of last week.
