To save and lend your savings to the country is to shorten the war. Back every soldier with a Saver. Have you started to buy War Savings Stamps?

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Watson motored to Pendleton Friday of last week. The roads are fine, according to Mr. Watson, and almost record time was made on the trip.

The Baptist Ladies Aid will hold a cooked food sale on Saturday, March 30. Announcement will be made in next issue of the place where it is to be held.

No man can excuse himself by saying that he is keeping still on the war question. A real patriot cannot be neutral. He is either an out-and-out American or a kaiserite. This is no time to keep still or to straddle.

Mrs. C. A. White and two sons came back from Scotts Mills, Oregon, Sunday. The recent death of Mr. White has left them undecided as to whether they shall remain and ranch here or return to Scotts Mills and look after extensive holdings that they own there.

All persons or firms engaged in importing, manufacturing, storing, or distributing fertilizers or fertilizer ingredients must secure licenses on or before March 20. Application must be made to the Law Department, License Division, United States Food Administration, Washington, D. C.

A good sized audience attended the Socialist lectures delivered Thursday evening in Mack's hall by Dr. Barnes of this city and Dr. Dequer of Umatilla. At the meeting it was announced that the date for the lecture of Geo. R. Kirkpatrick had been changed from the 25th of this month to April 1st.

The dog catcher has begun making his annual rounds in this city, and already quite a number have been put in pound. It is said that every animal of this variety that does not have a license tag will be escorted to the city pound, so if you have a dog you value very much it would be well for you to hustle to the office of the city clerk and secure a license tag.

Mrs. M. A. Reeder and Mrs. S. Klair, mother and sister of Levi Reeder, arrived Monday from the home of the latter lady at Missoula, Mont., and visited several days at the Reeder home. On leaving here they went to Seattle to consult an eye specialist, Mrs. Reeder, who is 74 years of age, having become troubled with failing eyesight.

Live checks may be sent through the mails by parcel post from now on providing they are properly prepared. This order from the post office department at Washington went into effect yesterday. It is stipulated that the fowl cannot be insured or sent C. O. D. nor carried to destinations more than 72 hours mailing distance.

New Auto Tire on Market

The Oregon Hardware & Implement Company has accepted the selling agency in this community for the Perfection Asbestos Protected tire, and attention is directed to their advertisement elsewhere in this issue. The Perfection differs from any other tire on the market in that it has an outer ply of finely woven asbestos fabric and an open weave asbestos breaker strip, these features protecting the cotton fabric of the carcass from deterioration through heat generated from road friction, and preventing tread separation and sand blisters. adv
