PREPARE

For the shortage of help this summer by ordering a FORD NOW. It just happens we are about caught up in our orders and can make delivery of two cars in April if orders get in now. A Ford car will save you enough time to make up for the help shortage.

"Despite the rumors we hear from time to time regarding the automobile industry, vague rumors that the use of passenger cars is to be prohibited as a war time measure, the sale of gasoline curtailed, and like predictions, there is no present indication that anything of this sort will happen.

"We are assured by competent authorities that no serious restrictions concerning the operation of passenger cars are being considered, and that there is ample gasoline to supply the wants of all motorists provided it is not used extravagantly."

The last two paragraphs are from Goodyear tire authority and they, with their line-up, should know where to get information based on fact.
