HERMISTON LOCALS

Among the resources of this nation that must be husbanded are the women.

Mrs. G. H. Root and Mrs. H. G. New port spent Saturday last in Pendleton visiting with friends.

F. B. Swayze, president of the First National Bank of this city, made a business trip to Boardman Thursday.

The best kind of "fire insurance" for next winter is a wood shed filled and a bin overflowing now. Get busy and order your fuel right away.

E. W. Mack has been appointed registrar of births and deaths for District No. 140, which covers voting precincts No. 51, 53, 54, 55, 56.

Mrs. I. J. Jay returned the first of the week from a few days' visit to Pendleton, being a guest while there at the home of her son, J. O. Jay.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Belscamper made a business visit to Pendleton Tuesday, returning in the evening on the sage brush special—the motor car.

The Willamette University Glee Club played to a crowded house at the Baptist church last Monday night. The entertainment was very enjoyable.

You are again cautioned not to forget to attend the Commercial Club meeting next Monday night. Business of importance is to come up, so make it a point to be present.

Oh, joy, the water has again been turned into the watering trough at Kingsley's store, and once more poor "Dobbin" can slake his thirst on arrival in town from the country.

H. M. Gunn has been appointed enrolling officer for the United States Working Reserve. All boys between the ages of 16 and 21 should see him and take the oath of allegiance.

Spring is here, summer is knocking at the door and old man winter is speeding on his way. Get ready to meet him by getting in fuel. Uncle Sam says it is the way to prevent more "heatless days" next winter.

Dr. and Mrs. A. Reid moved from Hermiston Monday of this week after having their household furniture packed and shipped to Haines, Oregon. Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Sapper are now occupying the Ross Newport residence vacated by them.

Mrs. L. Rhorer, wife of a rancher north of town, left last Saturday for Portland, where she will spend the summer. Accompanying her was her daughter, Mrs. W. E. Perry, who has been here from Portland on a visit to the parental home.

Judge and Mrs. W. H. Crary and little daughter autoed from Echo Sunday morning and were guests during the day at the home in this city of Mr. and Mrs. M. D. O'Connell. Besides being the dispenser of justice in the above town, Mr. Crary is the publisher of the newspaper there.

On account of the Umatilla Baptist association convening at Freewater on May 3, 4 and 5, there will be no services in the Baptist church next Sunday. The Sunday school and B. Y. P. U. will meet at the usual hours. The Baptist people will be the guests of the Methodist brethren.

W. P. Gugin, a well known rancher of the Holdman district, was in Hermiston Monday on business. Mr. Gugin, as well as a number of other farmers residing in the vicinity of Holdman, does all his trading in this city, which adds quite a sum yearly to the exchequer of the local merchants.

An auto party consisting of H. E. Hitt and family and A. E. Phelps and family were piloted to Pendleton by Dr. J. A. Peed Sunday, where the time was passed pleasantly. Before returning Mr. Phelps acquired the auto bug to such an extent that he "blowed" himself for a Studebaker car.

There's a smudge in the garden, a smoke in the air; a smell combined of burnt leather and hair. There's a girl on the lawn with a rake in her hand; there's a woe and distress all over the land. There's carpets to beat and rugs to shake; enough of such work to make a man quake. There's stoves to be moved and carpets to put down, no wonder a man wants to get out of town.

Mervel Stone, who is in Company H, 4th Infantry, Camp Lewis, since last June, was granted a short furlough on notification of the death of his father, L. A. Stone, and reached Wasco in time for the funeral of his parent on Friday of last week. Up to the time of the expiration of his leave of absence two days ago he has been at the family home in this city consoling his grief-stricken mother.

Mrs. R. M. Young arrived last week from St. Paul, Minnesota, and is a guest for the time being at the home of her son, C. H. Young, who holds a high position here with the reclamation service. Later the lady will rent a residence house and with her daughter, employed as stenographer and bookkeeper at the Hermiston Creamery Co., enter into housekeeping and permanently reside in this city.
