HERMISTON LOCALS

A special meeting of the Civic Club is called for Friday afternoon, May 24, at 2:30, at the Library.

R. Alexander of Pendleton was a Sunday guest at the home of his daughter, Mr. E. P. Dodd, in this city.

F. L. Kelly arrived home Wednesday from a couple of days' business visit to Walla Walla and Pendleton.

Col. H. G. Newport went to Portland and Astoria the first of the week on business connected with the Newport Construction Co., of which concern he is president.

H. J. Stillings, the well-known wide-awake east of town rancher, shipped another mixed car of cattle, hogs and sheep to the Portland market the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Hayden were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Casserly northwest of Hermiston, and during the day enjoyed an automobile trip to Umatilla.

William Kennedy, Fourth Unit rancher, went to Portland yesterday to have his right eye examined by a specialist, the sight of which has been wanting rapidly of late.

M. F. Callbeck is a grandpa now for the first time, his wife having written from Portland to the effect that a baby girl had come to the home in that city of their youngest daughter, Mrs. W. Sarmel.

Mrs. W. H. Simmons and daughter Gertrude were Hermiston guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. Brownell near Umatilla Sunday last, the first named lady being the mother of Mrs. Brownell.

Mrs. C. Evans of Flint, Michigan, who has been visiting relatives on the coast, arrived here Sunday, to remain a month as a guest of her brother, H. S. Anderson, proprietor of the Hotel Oregon.

Mrs. H. W. Hoffman and son Wilbur have arrived from Spokane to take up their permanent residence here with Mr. Hoffman, who holds a clerical position in the general store of B. S. Kingsley.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Watson and son John motored to Pendleton Wednesday, where Mr. Watson transacted business for the Western Land & Irrigation Co., with which corporation he is connected.

Dr. Cole, formerly located at Pendleton, but now a medical practitioner of Portland, was shaking hands with old-time friends in this city Saturday last while here looking after alfalfa land that he owns near this city.

Miss Ozalee Mays, who has been a guest at the home of her sister, Mrs. Fred Strasser in Columbia district, the past six weeks, returned to Portland Sunday to resume her occupation of dressmaking.

Ray Jay visited at the parental home east of this city over Sunday. The young gentleman has quit ranching to again take up his former occupation, that of a printer, having recently secured a situation on the Pendleton Tribune.

Mrs. Locke, owner of a ranch on the southern boundary of Hermiston and resident of this city for over a year, left last week for Denver, Colorado, to reside with relatives. E. P. Hayden has leased and is now operating the lady's ranch on South Hill.

E. J. Kingsley came over from Culver Saturday and visited here with his mother, Mrs. B. S. Kingsley, and his two sisters until Sunday morning, when he left to go direct to Camp Lewis, Wash., to go into active training at that military station.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Chezik went to Pendleton on the motor car Wednesday, and passed the day there visiting and attending to business matters. Tom Marxen looked after the Farmers' Exchange emporium during Manager Chezik's absence.

County Water Master Perry was here from Pendleton Wednesday looking after matters pertaining to the equal distribution of the waters of the Umatilla river among those having water rights along the stream in this vicinity.

Mrs. M. A. Brown and daughter Mabel, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Bernard, Gladys West and Lila McMillan went overland in an Overland auto driven by the first named lady by way of Pendleton to Walla Walla last Saturday, where they enjoyed a visit and returned to Hermiston the following evening.

Mrs. F. V. Prime was hostess at a party at her home last Saturday afternoon given in honor of her guest, Mrs. C. D. Loveridge of Portland. At this function there was a little deviation from the regular trend of such affairs, for instead of playing 500 or auction bridge the ladies sewed on Red Cross garments. Luncheon was served during the afternoon to the dozen guests present.

Highest Cooking Efficiency With Oil

What you and many other housewives have wanted is an Oil Cooking Equipment equal to or closely approaching the gas range. Something safe, convenient and easy to use, an oil range with plenty of power which does not need constant watching, which will give you just the degree of heat, intense or mild, which you need for boiling, frying, baking or simmering. A cooking equipment very economical to use which will eliminate the necessity of an overheated kitchen, and will make it unnecessary to sweeter over a hot coal or wood fire.
