HERMISTON LOCALS

Mrs. Georgia Henderson and daughter Marian visited in Pendleton Saturday of last week.

A. S. Attebery, well known rancher, made a business visit to the county seat the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Percey came home Wednesday morning from a short visit to Pendleton.

Mrs. H. D. Newell and little son are passing a few days this week visiting with relatives in Pendleton.

J. W. Wagborn began harvesting the first crop of this season's alfalfa on the John F. Reihl place west of town.

Rev. L. S. Chapman of the Baptist church returned from a business trip to The Dalles and Portland Wednesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Zeller entertained Rev. and Mrs. L. S. Chapman at a little dinner party at their home in this city last Sunday.

Mrs. Olive M. Lund of Washington, D. C. is here on a couple of months' visit to Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Frick, the lady being the mother of Mrs. Frick.

Mrs. J. C. Mathison, wife of a rancher near Diversion dam north of Hermiston, visited in this city last Saturday with her sister, Mrs. A. C. Har-nack, and other friends.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Loveridge and little daughter returned to their home in Portland Wednesday after a visit here with their friends, Dr. and Mrs. F. V. Prime.

Mrs. P. B. Sisco, who is now chief clerk in her husband's confectionery store in this city, took a day's vacation the latter part of last week and visited with friends in Pendleton.

Mrs. J. Intlekofer and children leave today for their home in Vancouver, Wash., after a pleasant two weeks visit at the home of the lady's cousin, Alderman H. M. Straw.

Mrs. Wm. De Vore of Pendleton, formerly resident here, passed Tuesday and Wednesday visiting friends and looking after an improved five acres that she owns adjoining the city limits on the southeast.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. McNaught left Wednesday morning to spend the balance of the week in Portland. While there Mr. McNaught will buy machinery and supplies with which to equip his big alfalfa mill building that has just been completed in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Jay and baby daughter came Wednesday on a visit to the gentleman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Jay, the lady and child to remain for a time. Mr. Jay, who is in the blacksmithing business in Pendleton, returned home the same day.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Wardsworth of Irrigon at St. Anthony's hospital in Pendleton the first of this week. Mrs. Wardsworth is a sister of C. H. Park, former resident of the project, and a niece of J. T. Embry, well known North Ridge rancher.

Dr. W. W. Illsley, who is physician in the base hospital at Camp Lewis, arrived Thursday morning to spend a ten day furlough in this city with his parents. Accompanying him was his brother, H. E. Illsley, jeweler and optician at Toppenish, Wash., who will remain a few days.

Mrs. J. O. Bradshaw, wife of the new clerk in the First National Bank, arrived from North Powder, this state, the latter part of last week. Mr. and Mrs. Bradshaw rented one of Mrs. J. F. McNaught's cottages in the western part of the city, and are now comfortably settled in their new home.

Mrs. J. H. Young and children are away to Pendleton spending the week visiting at the home of the lady's mother, Mrs. Rhoda Johnson. In the meantime the genial postmaster is baching, and while he is noticeably getting thin on his own cooking, nevertheless he claims to be away up as an epicurean artist.

A broad smile illuminated the generally happy countenance of J. W. Ralph Thursday when he was informed by telephone that Mrs. Ralph had given birth to a daughter at noon on that day at St. Anthony's hospital in Pendleton, and immediately he put on his best suit and caught the afternoon local in order to get acquainted with the new arrival as quickly as possible. Mother and daughter are getting along nicely.

C. S. McNaught and H. M. Straw are resting a little easier now, for they feel that they will be immune for a time at least from the auto bandits that have bothered them so much of late, now that the names of the members of that little band has become known. A short time ago they injured Mr. McNaught's family touring car to the extent of $50 in trying to get it started after silently sneaking it out of his garage, and on four different occasions they have taken joy rides by night in Mr. Straw's Ford car, and once or twice in J. W. Messer's auto.

Highest Cooking Efficiency With Oil

What you and many other housewives have wanted is an Oil Cooking Equipment equal to or closely approaching the gas range. Something safe, convenient and easy to use, an oil range with plenty of power which does not need constant watching, which will give you just the degree of heat, intense or mild, which you need for boiling, frying, baking or simmering. A cooking equipment very economical to use which will eliminate the necessity of an overheated kitchen, and will make it unnecessary to sweeter over a hot coal or wood fire.
