HERMISTON LOCALS

Alderman J. D. Watson has discarded his Chevrolet for a handsome new Oldsmobile touring car that he purchased last week.

Chas. Hahn, manager of Hahn's shoe store in this city, made a business trip this week to the Willowa country, going overland by auto.

Mrs. F. M. Bryant left Tuesday for Napavine, Wash., to pass a week visiting with her daughter Opal, who is telegraph operator at that place.

Nicholas Codd of Spokane, president of the local light concern, was a business visitor in this city several days this week.

W. A. Mikesell, well known north of town rancher, went to the county seat Wednesday, where he transacted business during the day.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Knapp have as their guest at their home on Ridgeway avenue the gentleman's mother, Mrs. Mary Knapp, of Pasadena, Calif., who will visit here a couple of months.

F. B. Swayze went to Pendleton Wednesday, where he reported on the recent Red Cross drive and turned over the money collected here to the county chapter of that organization.

W. W. Green, superintendent of schools at Echo, has been appointed by the county court to the office of county superintendent to succeed I. E. Young, resigned.

Dwight Sellers, a former Hermiston boy, spent a couple of days here the first of the week while on his way from his home in Banks, Oregon, to Pendleton to answer the draft call.

Miss Katherine Skinner returned to her home in Portland this week after a visit of several days passed in this city as the guest of her sister Ruth and her aunts, Mrs. Longhorn and Mrs. Illsley.

E. C. Goodwin, who placed quite a quantity of old Mutual life insurance during his three weeks' canvass here, has gone to Pendleton to dole out policies to the wheat barons of that community.

Mrs. L. S. Chapman left Wednesday on a visit to her son in Portland and her daughter in Dayton, Ore. While away she will also pay a visit to other relatives in that part of the state.

Ed Graham, who has been in Uma tilla for a couple of weeks assisting Lou Brownell with some needed work on his fine ranch overlooking the Columbia river near the above town, returned to Hermiston Monday.

C. M. Jensen, the jeweler, turned carpenter for a few days this week, during which time himself and a force of hammer and saw men constructed a sleeping porch on the east side of his residence in the southeastern portion of this city.

W. R. Walpole, general manager and sales agent of the Oregon Land and Water Co., located at Irrigon, was in Hermiston on business Monday, making the trip in his auto. He stated that the first cutting of alfalfa was under way in that town.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Sisco and son Teddy came by auto Thursday from their home in Wasco on a few days visit to Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Sisco, the gentlemen being brothers. Accompanying them were their friends, Mr. and Mrs. F. Silvey and three children.

Attorney and Mrs. W. J. Warner and Joseph Ralph went to Pendleton overland yesterday, being accompanied home in the evening by Mr. Ralph's little daughter Betty, who will be a guest of Mrs. Warner, her aunt, until the return from Pendleton of Mrs. Ralph and baby a week later.

Mr. and Mrs. George Holland again took their daughter Dorothy to Pendleton Monday for treatment by an osteopath for gastritis that has been troubling her of late. After taking in the circus Tuesday with his family Mr. Holland returned home, Mrs. Holland and Dorothy remaining there the balance of the week.

Attorney J. T. Hinkle left Wednesday to attend to legal business for the reclamation service in the western part of the state. He was accompanied to Portland by his daughter Miss Frances, where with her brother Dale, who has just completed a course in Reed college in that city, she will attend the commencement exercises of that institution, and later the two will return home together.

W. R. Longhorn returned last Saturday from Seaside, Oregon, where he spent most of last week attending the grand lodge convention of the Independent Order of Old Fellows as a delegate from the local order. Mrs. Longhorn accompanied him on the trip, and together they found time to pass a day or two visiting with Mr. and Mrs. W. Skinner, former residents of this city who are now living in Portland. Mr. Longhorn said there were about 1200 delegates at the grand lodge sessions, and that he witnessed some excellent degree work. The next annual meeting of the order will be held at Salem.

Highest Cooking Efficiency With Oil

What you and many other housewives have wanted is an Oil Cooking Equipment equal to or closely approaching the gas range. Something safe, convenient and easy to use, an oil range with plenty of power which does not need constant watching, which will give you just the degree of heat, intense or mild, which you need for boiling, frying, baking or simmering. A cooking equipment very economical to use which will eliminate the necessity of an overheated kitchen, and will make it unnecessary to sweeter over a hot coal or wood fire.
