THE Hermiston Herald

Makes Clubbing Arrangement With

The Oregon Farmer

Offers Unusual Opportunity to Its Readers

AMONG our large circle of readers there are a great many who are interested directly or indirectly in fruit growing, dairying and other branches of farming. All of these naturally wish to keep in close touch with agricultural activities throughout the state; and to know about any fight which is being waged for the measures Oregon farmers want and against all sorts of schemes that are detrimental to the people and agricultural interests of this state.

We have, therefore, made a special clubbing arrangement with THE OREGON FARMER whereby any farmer or fruitgrower, who is one of our regular subscribers and who is not now a subscriber to THE OREGON FARMER, will be entitled to receive THE OREGON FARMER in combination with this paper at the same rate as for this paper alone.

This offer applies to all those who renew or extend their subscriptions as well as to all new subscribers. If you are interested directly or indirectly in Oregon agriculture, do not miss this unusual opportunity, but send your order in now.

THE OREGON FARMER is the one farm paper which is devoting itself exclusively to the farming activities and interests of Oregon. It has a big organization gathering the news of importance to farmers, dairymen, fruitgrowers, stockraisers and poultrymen; and it has the backbone to attack wrongful methods and combinations and bad legislation, and support honest leaders and beneficial measures. We are confident that our readers will congratulate us on our being able to make this splendid and attractive clubbing offer.

LOCAL BRIEFS

Verlin Graham is home from Portland on a short visit to his parents, Rev. and Mrs. T. A. Graham.

At a meeting of the local school board last week A. C. Volkier of Baker, who was principal of the high school there last term, was elected to fill the position of superintendent here.

Word comes from W. B. Beasley, who is in a New York naval station, to the effect that he has been granted a short furlough and will visit with parents and friends here in about ten days.

William Leathers put the first baled hay of the season on the market, having shipped two car-loads to Portland the fore part of the week. W. W. Felthouse followed closely with another carload, for which he received $20 per ton on the Portland market. F. A. Bruson, operator of the big truck, superintended the hauling and loading in both instances.

Those attending Memorial Day services at the Baptist church last Sunday listened to a very able patriotic sermon, delivered by the pastor, Rev. L. S. Chapman. The special music arranged for the occasion and played by Miss Ruth Skinner, pianist, and Wm. Brown, violinist, was pleasing, and the vocal solo rendered by Mrs. W. A. Correll was excellent.

Dr. F. V. Prime had to forego his dental practice Monday and Tuesday of this week on account of having taken a "dose of his own medicine." A troublesome tooth took him to Pendleton, where in the course of having it extracted an artery or blood vessel of some kind was broken, resulting in weakness and illness from the excessive loss of blood.

The first of the week all of the merchants went to Pendleton and attended a meeting called for the purpose of making disposition of the sale of flour. The meeting was under direction of the federal food commissioner, and was attended by merchants from every town in the county, all of whom showed a patriotic spirit by agreeing not to sell any more wheat flour until after the new crop comes in.

J. O. Maggs, who has owned an improved five acres just outside the city limits south of town, has disposed of the place to Franklin Mason, father of C. C. and J. E. Mason. The selling of the ranch does not mean that Mr. Maggs will leave Hermiston, it being his intention to devote most of his time from now on to the bee culture business in which he has been quite extensively engaged.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Mack's son John, who has been taking treatment at an open air sanatorium in Portland for lung trouble the past four months, returned Wednesday much improved in health. Accompanying him was his brother, H. H. Mack, in the medical department of Vancouver barracks, who after a short visit here with his parents proceeded to Huntington to pass the balance of his furlough with his family.

C. S. McNaught and B. F. Knapp autoed to the Yakima valley in the former's car the latter part of last week, Mr. Keapp stopping off at his ranch near Richland, Wash., to superintend haying operations. From there Mr. McNaught proceeded on up the valley to the city of Yakima, where he attended to business matters. He said on his return the first of the week that the hay crop over there is in first class shape, and he noticed there would be quite a crop of apples, pears and peaches in parts of the country he went through, the frosts evidently having been lighter there than here.

Keep Faith With Your Boys "Over There"

When your boy was so little that all the world was a foreign country to him, he trusted you to take care of him. You sent him to school and to play and on your little errands, and with implicit faith he did your bidding.

Now we have sent your boy or your neighbor's boy out into a foreign land, into terrors that he cannot even know—and his faith has not faltered. He knows we will do our part if he does his. Pledge yourself to buy War Savings Stamps on or before

JUNE 28
NATIONAL WAR SAVINGS DAY

Saving to help our sons is not to be called by the ugly name of duty or sacrifice. It is love's blessed privilege.

Are we keeping the faith? Are we scrimping and saving and giving to help our boys do this thing that humanity has asked of them and to help them come back to us sane and whole? Are we doing not only our bit, but all we can?
