FORD

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

Remember that when you bring your Ford car to us for mechanical attention that you get the genuine Ford service—materials, experienced workmen and Ford factory prices. Your Ford is too useful, too valuable to take chances with poor mechanics, with equally poor quality materials. Bring it to us and save both time and money.

We are authorized Ford dealers, trusted by the Ford Motor Company to look after the wants of Ford owners. That's the assurance we offer.

HERMISTON LOCALS

Mrs. J. Ralph and new born babe arrived home from Pendleton last Saturday.

Mrs. J. F. Bilderback went to Portland Sunday to enjoy a visit with her sister, Mrs. Hogan Miller.

Mrs. B. F. Knapp is enjoying a visit from her younger sister, Julia Clements, who came the first of the week from her home in Richland, Wash.

At The Movie tonight will be screened "Jack Pickford, the Dummy," which is said to be a good motion play.

Mrs. R. M. Young and her daughter Miss Ethel, who is stenographer and bookkeeper at the Hermiston Creamery Co., have taken the Purdy house on East Main street for the summer.

Bishop O'Reilly, of Baker City, stopped off here Friday of last week to visit with friends prior to leaving for Lincoln, Neb., to which diocese he has been transferred.

W. L. Swan of Portland passed a few days here this week superintending the harvesting of the hay crop on his 27-acre ranch near the southwestern city limits.

Miss Ruth Skinner, stenographer in the offices of the reclamation service, is away on her annual vacation paying a visit to her parents in Portland. Before her return she will extend her trip to California.

Mrs. M. D. O'Connell and son Forrest are this week enjoying a visit to old friends in Tekoa, Wash., at the conclusion of which they will go to Richland, Wash., to visit and look after property interests.

A. Boslar, who resides on the Chas. Skinner place, returned the latter part of last week from a business visit to Portland. Mr. Boslar was formerly a large contractor and builder in that city.

Grandma Cleghorn, mother of Mrs. T. Brassfield and Mrs. Mendenhall, sustained a paralytic stroke the first of the week, and this, combined with her advanced age, makes her condition very critical.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Spinning returned home Tuesday, the former from Portland, to which city he piloted the auto of H. S. Anderson, and Mrs. Spinning from Pendleton, where she visited with relatives during her husband's absence.

The condition of J. E. Mason, who was badly hurt the first of last week in a hay baling accident on the ranch of Wm. Leathers, has suffered much from the injury. Within the past two days, however, there is a perceptible improvement.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Longhorn have received a letter from their son Milton, who was one of the members of the last draft that left this county recently, to the effect that he has been assigned to the Sixty-third infantry now training at the Presidio in San Francisco.

Miss Clara Bryant arrived Monday from Great Falls, Montana, and will be a guest during the balance of the summer at the home of her sister, Mrs. H. T. Fraser. The lady has just concluded teaching a ten months' term of school in Great Falls, and at the end of her vacation period will return there, having been re-elected for another term.

A little party composed of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Strohm, Col. and Mrs. H. G. Newport and Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Scroggs journeyed out Heppner way by auto last Saturday in order to get a better view of the eclipse. At noon they lunched under the shade trees on the spacious lawn at Jarman's ranch on Butter Creek, and later drove to a high plateau, where they secured a good view of the rare spectacle.

M. F. Callbeck, contractor and builder of this city, is away on the second vacation he has taken during the eleven years that he has resided here. Tuesday he laid aside his carpenter tools and boarded No. 1 for Portland with the firm intention of staying there the balance of the week, during which time he will be a guest at the home of his daughter, Mrs. W. Sarme. He will be accompanied home by Mrs. Callbeck, who has been there the past five weeks.

Mrs. Louisa Kik and Miss Anna Kik are here from Seattle, Wash., on a visit to the first named lady's son William and daughter, Mrs. E. Bell, both of whom reside on ranches north of town. Mrs. Kik will spend several months with her daughter, while Miss Anna will return to Seattle in a month to again take up her duties as sales lady in one of the large department stores in that city. Besides the above relatives Mr. and Mrs. Bell and Mr. Kik are entertaining another sister, Mrs. Louis Peterson, and her husband, who are on their way to Idaho on a honeymoon trip. Mr. Peterson is a former prominent mining man of Nome, Alaska, now residing in Seattle, where himself and bride are active workers on the council of defense of division No. 3 in that city.

Do not allow your dollars to be conscripted—they should be volunteers.

Mrs. A. E. Granlund and daughter of Richland, Wash., were visiting Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Knapp on the latter part of last week, Mrs. Knapp being a niece of the first named lady.
