LOCAL BRIEFS

Percey Sisters Millinery have just received tailored felt hats and French caps for your outing and early fall wear. Come and see them.

In one respect one feels sorry for our boys "over there"—no watermelons in the world equal ours, but there are some "peaches" in France.

Carl W. Voyer, who holds the position of first sergeant in the aviation corps of the contingent now stationed at Arcadia, Florida, is here on a furlough. He came direct to Hermiston where Mrs. Voyer is visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Phelps.

Word was received the first of the week from Louis Garner and Cecil Kelly, who left here last week for Portland to enlist, to the effect that they had successfully passed, the former joining the marines now training in one of the camps near San Francisco and the latter going to the naval training station at Bremerton.

This Saturday evening Sessue Hayakawa will be presented at The Movie in "The Bottle Imp." This play is adapted from Robert Louis Stevenson's intensely interesting story of old Hawaii. It has to do with the tale of a wishing bottle which granted every wish, and is an enthralling photoplay abounding in mystery, love and romance. The show begins at 9 o'clock sharp. Beginning with Saturday evening there will be but one show at The Movie during the balance of the hot weather, so be there on time if you desire to witness the whole play.

A Horse on Who?

The was a case in Justice Dodd's court yesterday, the suit being brought by James Metzker for the recovery of money to the amount of the worth of a horse that L. W. Furnas had lost after hiring it from him. The trial was by jury, Metzker being represented by Attorney J. T. Hinkle and Furnas by Col. Raley, well known Pendleton attorney. The jury was composed of Ray Challis, Levi Reeder, Maurice Johnson, J. H. Young, T. P. Campbell and Chas. E. Opel. Their findings were that Mr. Furnas pay Metzker $75 for the horse and $15 for its use, making a total of $90.

Length of Our Wars.

The first American war, that of the Revolution, dated from April 19, 1775, to April 11, 1783, a period of eight years; the northwestern Indian wars, from Sept. 19, 1790, to Aug. 3, 1795; the war with France, from July 9, 1798, to Sept. 30, 1800; the war with Tripoli, from June 10, 1801, to June 4, 1805; the Creek Indian war, from July 27, 1813, to Aug. 9, 1814; the war of 1812 with Great Britain, from June 18, 1812, to Feb. 17, 1815; the Seminole Indian war, from Nov. 20, 1817, to Oct. 21, 1818; the Black Hawk Indian war, from April 21, 1831, to Sept. 30, 1832; the Cherokee disturbance or removal, from 1836 to 1837; Creek Indian war or disturbance, from May 5, 1836, to Sept. 30, 1837; the Florida Indian war, from Dec. 23, 1835, to Aug. 14, 1843; Aroostock disturbance, 1836 to 1839; the war with Mexico, April 24, 1846, to July 4, 1848; the Apache, Navajo and Utah war, from 1840 to 1855; the Seminole war, from 1856 to 1858; the war between the states, from 1861 to 1865; the Spanish-American war, April 21, 1898, to Aug. 12, 1898, and the Philippine insurrection, from 1896 to 1900.

The British Manicure Lady.

"In English barber shops you do not have to pay for mirrors, elaborately tiled floors and a manicure girl," writes Homer Crox in Everybody's. "Over there a manicurist is considered the last vocable in the way of smartness. The manicure girl hasn't the run of the shop there as she has here. She has a little cage down in one corner, where she is bottled up as if she were a rare liquid. When a man wants to have any light housework done on his hands he thrusts one of them through the bars, while the proprietor hurries up with a newspaper for him to read. In America we would be insulted if the owner of the shop put something into our hands to read while the manicure girl was working on us. In England the art of jollyng the manicurist is unknown."

Room For Thrift.

The American Society For Thrift is sounding a warning that should not go unheeded. The statistics it has gathered indicate how reckless we are with our money and how little we lay up for a rainy day. We are pre-eminently a nation of spenders who believe in living while we live.

Statistics show that ninety-five of every hundred Americans who reach the age of sixty are dependent upon their daily earnings or on others for support. The total, of course, includes wives, mothers and daughters who had not tried nor expected to accumulate a competency. But after they are eliminated the percentage of workers who have a nest egg at sixty is very small, even if that is generally considered too young for retirement.

Woman and Electricity.

When a woman is sulky and will not speak—exciter.
If she gets too excited—controller.
If she talks too long—interrupter.
If her way of thinking is not yours—converter.
If she is willing to meet you half way—meter.
If she will meet you all the way—receiver.
If she wants to go farther—conductor.
If she would go still farther—dispatcher.
If she wants chocolate—feeder.—Exchange.

Stamp Taxes.

Taxation through the use of stamps is nearly 800 years old. The states general of the Netherlands offered a reward for the invention of a new tax, and some person in 1624 suggested that stamps be required on legal documents. England first used stamp taxes in 1694, the United States in 1797.—New York Sun.

Getting It Right.

Mrs. Quizzer—I see your friend, Mr. Singleton, is here. He was the best man at your wedding, was he not? Mr. Whizzer—No; he was merely the luckiest.—New York Globe.

Convincing Proof.

Harker—Why do you think he is a great practical joker? Parker—Because when I played a little joke on him the other day it made him furious.—Indianapolis Star.

His Wish.

Willis—Would you be satisfied if you had all the money you wanted? Gillis—I'd be satisfied if I had all the money my creditors wanted.—Exchange.
