MEATS RETAIL & WHOLESALE

Litchfield Manure Spreader

NOW, right this fall and early winter, is the right time to spread manure. A Litchfield does it better, is easier draft and carries a better guarantee than any spreader built. A five year WRITTEN GUARANTEE BOND goes with each sale. Of the four to arrive this week in carload two are already sold. Better see us about yours.

HERMISTON LOCALS

W. J. Roberts is recovering from a tussle with the Flu at his farm home north of town.

S. D. L. Ross has the power house he recently constructed on his ranch northwest of town all enclosed.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Casserly and Miss Mary O'Rourke were evening visitors Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Hayden.

Word comes from Earl Carson and family, who recently moved from here to Colfax, to the effect that they are all just recovering from a severe attack of the Flu.

Ross Newport has been in St. Anthony's hospital in Pendleton all week wrestling with the Flu, which from last accounts he has got the best of and is on the road to recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Schilling, who are now residing in Pendleton, returned to their home Sunday after passing Thanksgiving and the following days here at the home of their son, H. M. Schilling.

J. J. Casserly is going to ship all his stock to Portland soon unless sold locally. Among them are four nice calves, two heifers coming two years old and a good cow soon to come fresh.

President Swazey of the First National bank of this city has been suffering this week from a couple of defective molars, but is gradually regaining normal condition since he paid a visit to Dr. Prime, the local dentist.

Mrs. D. H. Prindle has been quite ill the past ten days from bronchial trouble and asthma. Her condition calls for a change of climate, and Mr. Prindle is now making preparations to move with her to a higher altitude.

Geo. H. Root, DuROC-Jersey hog raiser, leaves Sunday for Portland, where he will spend next week attending the Pacific International Live Stock Exposition to be held at North Portland, from December 9 to 14, inclusive.

Mrs. W. A. Leathers has been quite dangerously ill since herself and husband returned early in the week from Chelan and Spokane, Wash. While away the lady contracted the Flu, being quite ill from it on her arrival home.

Miss Virginia Todd, who with Mrs. J. H. Strohm had been in Seattle for some time awaiting passports for overseas duty in the Red Cross, returned home last week. At the eleventh hour all commissions for work in this noble order had been cancelled, due to the close of the war.

Col. H. G. Newport returned Thursday morning from a ten days business trip to Portland. Mrs. Newport joined him there a few days ago, and is now convalescing in the Good Samaritan hospital in that city after undergoing a siege of the Flu, which she contracted shortly after arriving in Portland.

Col. J. F. McNaught, who has the largest acreage of land in alfalfa on this project, has begun operations on another 20 acres that he owns one-half mile north of town. When the work of clearing, leveling and ditching has been completed it is his intention to seed the twenty to alfalfa early enough to secure crops from it during next summer.

Clarence Parrish, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Parrish of this city, left Sunday for Kansas City, Mo., to enter Rahe's Auto and Transfer school and receive instructions in gas engineering. He will take a complete three months' course, after which he will graduate and return here and work at the trade.

Miss Marie Pierson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Pierson east of town, left Sunday to spend the week with her brother Emile in Madras. The young man recently received severe injuries from having a horse he was riding fall on him, and possibly he will return home with his sister for a recuperative visit.

Stephen A. Lowell of Pendleton, county chairman of the forthcoming Christmas Roll Call campaign of the Red Cross, has advised H. J. Strohm of this city that he has been selected as manager of the campaign in this district. C. S. McNaught and Thomas Campbell have also received notification from Mr. Lowell of their appointment as vice managers, and Miss Hattie Graham is appointed chairman of the Hermiston district, with authority to select two active women of the organization as associates.

Attention Eastern Stars
Stated communication of Queen Esther Chapter next Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock in Lodge Hall, Hermiston. Election of officers and degrees. Attendance of all members desired. By Order of W. M.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to express our most sincere appreciation of the many kindnesses and generous sympathy extended to us by our many friends in our recent sorrow over the death of our beloved son.

MR. AND MRS. HAYDEN AND FAMILY.

Notice

Those having hogs to kill and desiring a butcher, can secure our services at a nominal cost. We will trim up the meat, render the lard and make sausage for you. Those desiring to have sausage ground from their own meats can have it done here at 1 cent per pound.
