

THERE'S MONEY IN POULTRY

Whether you are a farmer or city man, you will find poultry raising profitable. There is always a demand for fresh eggs at good prices. Why not start now and get in on this money making business. We have plan books of poultry houses, and just the kind of lumber you need to build them.

If you have poultry and they are not laying at this time, while eggs are the highest, it is in all probability the fault of the house. Let us tell you what a good house will cost you that will make the hens comfortable and induce them to lay regularly.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

(By Frances E. Hinkle)
A program was given last Friday morning in assembly. A debate was given by four members of the American History class on "Resolved that the United States should help feed Germany." Miss Frances Hinkle and Miss Bertha McKeen supported the affirmative, while Miss Marie Casserly and Miss Mildred Percey were on the negative. A review of President Wilson's message to congress was well given by Miss Brassfield. A piano solo was given by Miss Marguerete Watson which was thoroughly enjoyed by all.
The boys basket ball will practice every night in the Auditorium. They hope to have a few games in spite of the "flu."

The eighth grade debated last Friday afternoon on "Resolved that the government should keep control of the railroads." The decision was given to the affirmative. A great deal of enthusiasm was displayed by the pupils.

BUTTER CREEK ITEMS

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE
The dance that was scheduled to be held in the basement of the new school house had to be postponed on account of the new flu scare, much to the grief of some Butter Creekers. But be patient folks, we will have one yet.
Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Nation and Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Canfield motored to Pendleton Monday to comply with the request of doing their Xmas shopping early. There will be an Xmas entertainment at the new school house on Dec. 24, Xmas eve. All are cordially invited to be there. It is supposed that Santa will be around to see the kiddies that night.
Chas. Kunze is having some land near the old school house leveled by Ed. Canfield, preparatory to seeding it to rye. Mr. Kunze is also having one of the stacks on the Tillamook ranch chopped by Mr. Richards' crew as a sort of an experiment to see how much the horses will save on the chopped hay.
P. J. Walt is the proud possessor of a car, and now he runs around over the country faster than usual. Mr. Walt purchased the car from Del Shultz.
New crop wallnuts, 30c per pound; also Christmas nuts and candies at Kingsley's. adv.
