Don't forget the rabbit meeting at the library at 1:30 this Saturday afternoon.

Christmas drive for Red Cross membership Dec. 20. Have your money ready for the committee.

H. S. O'Connell, a mining man of Anchorage, Alaska, is in the city on a couple of weeks visit to his sister, Mrs. J. W. McDermed, and brother, M. D. O'Connell. He came from the north on the steamship Victoria.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Voliva are new arrivals in the city. They have taken a cottage on the west side, where they will reside until Mr. Voliva secures by purchase or lease a desirable tract of land in this neighborhood.

Twelve young men assembled Thursday evening at the home of Paul Mumma in honor of his birthday. A pleasant evening was passed and delicious luncheon was served. Messrs Scroggs and Rees delighted the guests with a few songs.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Whiting and Mrs. W. E. Barmore and son arrived Thursday from Orland, Calif., and the Whitings will again occupy the old home ranch in the southeastern part of town that they settled on in the early days.

The seaport town of Umatilla experienced a little boom in real estate the first of the week, when H. H. Edwards of that city sold forty acres of land a half mile south to J. B. Carrell, receiving therefor a good price.

Chas. Gilliam of Wyeth, Ore., was here several days this week looking over the country with a view to locating. During his stay he was the guest of his old time friend, G. F. Parsons.

This Saturday the Catholic ladies are holding their cooked food and Christmas articles sale in the old rest room one door east of the local bank, and it is noticeable that everything in the line of "good eats" are on display there.

Word comes that Ed. Hitt and Ralph Hiatt have reached this side of the Atlantic and are on their way to their homes from the east. If they don't put in too much time sightseeing in the big cities along the route they will be in Oregon in time for their Christmas dinner.

Sprague Brothers, who have been operating a well drilling outfit on the project the past ten years, left Monday for Spokane to make their future home. There they will work on a big contract to remove lumber as fast as it is manufactured by a sawmill, the contract to last three years.

Contractor W. S. Boynton and son Ted are busily engaged building a barn for A. D. Crossland on the forty acre ranch on the eastern edge of town that he recently acquired by purchase from F. B. Swayze of this city and Mrs. Nash of Pendleton. As soon as this work is finished Mr. Boynton will begin work on the construction of a handsome bungalow for Mr. Crossland.

Be prepared to take your quota of War Saving Stamps. The committee will call on you Dec. 20.

There will be no more meetings of the Red Cross until the first of the year. A business meeting will be held on January 2, 1919.

The Farmers' Exchange meeting will take place this Saturday afternoon at 1:30 in the library basement.

There will be a meeting of W. C. T. U. at the public library next Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. All members are requested to be present.

B. F. Strohm was home over Sunday from Stanfield, where he is doing interior wood finishing on a 13 room house that W. S. Boynton built for a rancher on his farm four miles out of that town. The structure being a large one, Mr. Strohm expects it will take him a couple of months to complete the job.

H. J. Stillings received word this week of the death from influenza of an old friend, Dan Elliott, a well to do wheat rancher of Whitman county residing near Tekoa. It was only a week ago that Mr. Stillings received a carload of dry land potatoes for the Farmers' Exchange from Mr. Elliott, and the news of his demise following so quickly came as a regrettable surprise.

Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Doherty arrived Monday from Waldport, Ore., in the spruce belt, where they have been all summer and fall. On their way here they visited a week in McMinville with the lady's mother, Mrs. J. K. Shotwell, and another week among friends in Portland. They will reside permanently in Hermiston, Mr. Doherty having already taken charge of contract work for Mr. Shotwell near Stanfield.

C. C. Ballenger, lumber man of Boardman, and O. L. Blayden, proprietor of the new garage in that town, were here Monday night to secure the services of a doctor to attend Mrs. Phillips, operator of the hotel there, who they reported dangerously ill from influenza. Mr. Ballenger said there was quite an epidemic of this dreaded disease in Boardman, his wife being among those who were very ill for a time from its effects.

"Cash Sales" Raising Sale!

Out Goes Our Stock

Of Ladies Suits, Coats, Skirts, Waists, Dresses, Petticoats, Kimonos, House Dresses, Aprons, Sweaters

A JOYFUL EVENT FOR THE LADIES OF UMATILLA COUNTY

To be able to fit up before Holiday time with such Standard Goods as we have always carried and at such a sacrifice as we will make.

No comparative prices will be published. Our reason for this "Cash Sales" Raising Sale is this. On the first of each season we estimate our sales and buy accordingly. This season our "Credit Sales" or "Charge Sales" are over the mark but, our "Cash Sales" are under the estimate! This is on account of the "Flu" and as we are determined to go "Over the Top" you are going to be able to buy Ladies' Ready-to-Wear as above mentioned for less than you ever did before. Here are the conditions on advertised goods.

No Charge to Anyone
No Goods Laid Away
No Phone Orders

No Approvals
No Exchanges
No Free Alterations
No Refunds
No More Than One Delivery a Day

All goods are to be selected in person and each sale is final and conclusive and when the Cash is rung up in the Register the sale is history. We ask you to read this ad. carefully, make your selections the same way; we will accord you all the time you want, but remember, this is a "CASH SALES" RAISING SALE and as we have paid for the goods once (and we have, too,) we will not buy them back of you.

We are going to make lots of friends by this sale and we will not ruin that friendship by breaking any rules that apply to all.
