MEATS RETAIL & WHOLESALE

HERMISTON LOCALS

Mrs. P. B. Sisco left Thursday on a week's visit to friends in The Dalles, Ore.

Ed. Hobbs, a former resident, came up from Portland last Saturday on a visit to his friends.

B. W. Smith was able to be around Wednesday after being laid up four days from an attack of lumbago.

Mrs. A. C. Harnack and daughters Edna and Aura went to Portland Wednesday for a week's visit with relatives and friends.

E. P. Dodd and B. F. Knapp went to Portland Thursday on business, thus leaving the town devoid of real estate men for a few days.

W. B. Whitford, rancher a little over a mile north of Hermiston, returned Monday from a three days business visit in Pendleton.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Sisco returned to their home in Wasco Tuesday after a pleasant few days visit here with their son, P. B. Sisco, and wife.

Ernest F. Pierson is home from Fort McDowell, Calif., having been honorably discharged from the recruit company in which he served.

H. K. Dean, superintendent of the experiment farm operated by the government near this city, was a business visitor to Pendleton last Saturday and Sunday.

J. H. Strohm left last week for Portland, where he was joined by Mrs. Strohm, who came from Seattle. They will remain in the Rose City for a time before returning home.

Judge J. T. Embry came home Saturday from H. J. Stillings' ranch six miles east of town, where he has been the past ten weeks helping Mr. Stillings fill his silos with ensilage.

G. B. Roland of Jefferson, Ore., was a guest here Tuesday at the homes of his wife's sisters, Mesdames Hitt and Phelps. Mr. Roland conducts a barber shop in the above city.

Miss Ethel Young, stenographer and bookkeeper at the Hermiston Creamery, and Miss Bess Hall, primary teacher in the Hermiston school, returned from Pendleton Sunday after a week-end visit in that city.

Mrs. J. Cunha, wife of the well known wealthy sheep man of Echo, and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. J. Cunha, Jr., whose husband is operator of the Echo Flour Mills, were visitors in this city between trains Monday last.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Cochran and daughter Winnie, who arrived here a couple of weeks ago from Stites, Idaho, to make their home, have moved onto the E. P. Dodd South Hill ranch, which they will operate the coming year.

Mrs. H. R. Newport and son Marshall have been here from Portland on a visit with relatives the past week. Part of the time the lady was at the sick bedside of her husband, Ross Newport, who is now convalescing in Pendleton from a severe attack of influenza.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Boynton have arrived home in Hermiston, the gentleman coming from Fort Mason, Calif., where he was in the service as a member of the quartermaster's corps. After receiving his honorable discharge he joined his wife in Moscow, Idaho, and together they came here to again take up their residence.

THE CHRISTMAS SPIRIT

THE CHRISTMAS SPIRIT finds its outward expression in the giving of presents, but this year as never before, the useful present should be the only gift.

Beauty and utility may be charmingly combined as you will see when you look over our Christmas stock.

We have many things to offer that are suitable presents for any member of the family and will be pleased to show you our stock and help you make your Christmas Selections.
