HERMISTON LOCALS

A Happy New Year, and a prosperous one, is the earnest wish of The Herald for its patrons and readers.

Sam Rodgers, proprietor of the Oak Tan Shoe Shop, was laid up a few days this week from rheumatism.

A business meeting of the Red Cross will be held Thursday, January 2, at 3 o'clock at the Red Cross Work room.

John F. Reihl, who passed two and a half weeks in Portland attending to personal business matters, returned home Friday of last week.

Dr. F. V. Prime is again able to attend to his dental business after an enforced absence of several days this week on account of illness.

William Shaar is able to be about again after having been forced to remain indoors several days this week on account of illness.

Leonard Soneson, in the seaman branch of the service at Seattle, came Sunday to pass a nine day furlough at the parental home near this city.

Christmas Day Postmaster Young addressed Christmas greeting cards to all the quarantine patients, and George Holland delivered them in person.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Knapp and children motored to Richland, Wash., last Saturday and visited over Sunday there at the parental home of the lady.

Henry Notz departed last Saturday for Denver, Colo., where he will pass the holiday season visiting with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Louise Notz, and family.

Miss Everette Kingsley, who is attending college in western Oregon, is visiting here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Kingsley, during the holiday vacation.

Mrs. H. G. Newport returned from Portland Tuesday after a month's visit in that city. While there the lady was very ill from influenza, from which she fully recovered.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Ballenger were guests in this city over Monday night of Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Sisco while on their way home to Boardman from a ten-day recuperative visit to Hot Lake, Oregon.

Grant Skinner returned to Portland Tuesday after concluding a pleasant visit here with his sister Ruth and other relatives. The young man will graduate next month from a dental college in the above city.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Bilderback left Sunday for Portland to pass the Christmas holidays with the lady's parents in that city. Mr. Bilderback expects to be back today, his wife remaining over until after New Year's.

George Holland, who has been in Portland since last October, during which time he was in the employ of the Armour Packing Co., is home on a visit to his family. He was granted a two week's holiday by the concern.

T. W. Sapper, of the local garage firm of Sappers' Inc., has been close to death's door the past few days from pneumonia, following an attack of influenza. Although better at this writing, he is still far from being out of danger.

While riding her pony Thursday morning Isabelle Dodd lost a dark green double shopping bag somewhere on the streets of the city. The little lady prized the bag very much, and she will be very grateful indeed if the finder will return it to her or her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Gary departed Thursday for their home in San Francisco after passing the Christmas holidays pleasantly in this city visiting with the lady's parents, Col. and Mrs. J. F. McNaught, and her brother, C. S. McNaught, and family. Mr. Gary is the Pacific coast representative of the Chemical National Bank of New York City.

This office this week printed letter heads and envelopes for the new garage in Boardman to be operated under the firm name of C. G. Blayden & Son. Nothing but the most up-to-date method of doing business suits them fellows in Boardman, and that is the very reason that the town, even in its infancy, is one of the most progressive in Eastern Oregon.

Office of True Friend.

To know that you have a friend concerned in your struggle robs it of half its hardness. Disappointments that would assume bitter proportions lose their edge in the friend's smile. He helps us see that matters might have been worse. Emerson is never tired of extolling the merits of the nurse of his childhood who always helped him belittle his petty hurts by being glad they were not much more painful. And that's the office of the sincere friend. His office is to bring out our best and make us manly.

Card of Thanks

It is with feelings of deep gratitude that we take this means of expressing our sincere thanks to the people of Hermiston who lent their services and sympathized with us in the hour of our sad bereavement over the loss of our beloved son Vernon. Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Hunt.

Dr. Freeze makes regular visits to Hermiston. Consult him free and be assured of good of good eye service. 13
