

ATTENTION FARMERS

Are you interested in keeping books on your business? We want to place a Farm Record Book gotten out by the Oregon Agricultural College in the hands of every farmer who will agree to take an invoice of his property and keep a record of his receipts and disbursements for the year 1919. Call on us for further information.

Porcupines Destroying Trees
During the past three years a number of fruit trees have been destroyed in this vicinity by having the bark removed by porcupines. R. W. Allen reports that several young orchards have been seriously damaged during the past few years. A vigilant search about the premises with a dog will usually result in finding the intruding animals, as they usually stay close to where they feed and are easy to overrun.

New Scout Master

The Boy Scouts of Hermiston held a meeting Tuesday in the library. At this convention they selected Rev. M. R. Gallaher for their new scout master, and under his leadership the boys who have not yet taken their test will do so next Tuesday. All boys 12 years or over can join.

Baptist Sunday school at 10 a. m. E. A. Benschel, superintendent. Everybody welcome.

A number of young people were guests at a very enjoyable party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Thomas last Saturday evening, at which there was dancing, taffy pulling and popcorn popped.

Daily Thought.
Nothing endures but personal qualities.—Walt Whitman.

In Boston, at Any Rate.
"The game isn't always won by the best team," says an exchange. "No; it is generally won by the better team."—Boston Transcript.

Of Latin Derivation.
Corps is a French word derived from the Latin corpus, a body, either civil or military, as a police corps, marine corps, etc. It does not signify any particular number, but an organized body. In the United States army a corps consists of two or more divisions, each containing three brigades and each brigade three regiments. The term first came into use in this country during the Civil war period.

It's a Good Offer
Referring to our advertisement offering a farm record book to any farmer who is interested enough to keep the records, Mr. R. V. Gunn, farm management demonstrator of the Oregon Agricultural College, has kindly consented to come to Hermiston on Monday evening to meet the farmers of this community and explain to them the importance of farm records, manner of keeping the records, etc. We want to hear from at least 25 farmers today so we can notify Mr. Gunn. Phone or call. First National Bank

Resolution of Condolence
Whereas, The Supreme Architect of the universe, has through his silent messenger death, removed from our midst our much respected friend and brother, Theodore W. Sapper. Therefore be it
Resolved, That through his untimely demise Hermiston Lodge No. 138 A. F. and A. M. has lost a faithful member and the lodge light has been dimmed. Be it further
Resolved, That we as a lodge and each as individuals extend to his wife and family deepest sympathy in their great loss and share their grief and sorrow in the hour of affliction. Be it further resolved that a copy of these resolutions be sent to his wife and relatives and also be published and entered in the lodge records. Maurice D. Scroggs August F. Litchfield Manure Spreader

There are some of these eight years old giving good service every day in Hermiston. There are others six years old. There are also five new ones, recently sold by us, also giving satisfactory service. Remember a five year written guarantee bond goes with each machine sold. We will have another one in next week. Better look it over and take care of your lost money in your barn-yard by buying one at once.

TERMS TO SUIT

SAPPERS' INC.

EVERYTHING IN FARM IMPLEMENTS

A Suit of Mail, Probably.
"My dear sir," said the suave salesman as he handed the customer his package and no change. "You will find that your suit will wear like iron." And sure enough, it did. The man hadn't worn it two months till it looked rusty.

A Natural Conclusion.
The Gullible Guy—I see that the doctors have declared that a hot bath will weaken a person.

The Skeptical Fellow—According to that theory, no bath will make one strong.

Time Values.
"Time is money," remarked the ready-made philosopher.
"That's right," replied the gentle punster. "And the more times you subscribe to the Liberty loan the more money you'll have."

Where the Old Clothes Go.
"You think great saving is effected by letting women do men's work?"
"Yes; in ways we didn't anticipate. We can now cut down sister's overalls to fit little brother."

Literal.
"She gave her lawyer friend a paradoxical wish."
"What was it?"
"Said she hoped his brief career would be a long one."

The Kind.
"Pa, do Panama hats really come from a tree?"
"Yes, my son."
"Is it a hat tree?"
