

SAVE MONEY =On All Buildings Now=

Lumber is lower now than it will be for several years, and is already NOW advancing. Secretary of the Navy says—"The man who says he will build a house as soon as wages goes down, is inviting panic, disaster and calamity. For I tell you and it is the truest thing I could say that wages in the United States are never going back to the old level."

BUILD NOW Don't Wait

Prices will not drop—Don't wait—Ask us about Partial Payment Plans—Ask to see our special plan books on homes illustrated with fire places, bookcases, cupboards, medicine cabinets, ironing boards, pedestals, arches, linen cases, stairways, breakfast room sets, etc.

Our Architectural Department gathers pictures and designs new and improved buildings on the farm.

It's worth while to plan out all buildings on paper, then we can readily tell you the exact cost of all material necessary for the buildings—no Extras to pay for—complete blueprinted plans.

Every piece of material shown with simple working instructions.

Our pictures, plans, details cost estimates of what other farmers have built successfully in eastern Washington and Oregon are "at your service."

BOARDMAN NEWS

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE

E. P. Dodd was here Saturday looking after the interest of the town.

J. P. Hayden called on Gibbons & Cramer last week in the interest of Lang & Co.

The ball game at Arlington last Sunday resulted in a score of five to six in Arlington's favor.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Phelps were here Sunday visiting at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Carl Voyer.

Mrs. Mulky's little baby has fully recovered from the effect of measles.

The Grange met last week at the home of Mrs. Johnson.

The commencement exercises will be held on May 29. The Baccalaureate sermon will be given on Sunday, May 24. We are expecting Rev. F. E. Faucett, the minister from Stanfield.

A number of young people attended the dance at Umatilla last Saturday night.

Mrs. Crawford's brother and sister are here from Missouri and Arkansas and expect to spend the summer.

May day, held on Tuesday of this week, was a decided success.

A. E. Bates returned from Heppner on Saturday. W. M. Miles attended the confectionery and pool hall while Mr. Bates was away.

Mr. and Mrs. Broyles are visitors at the home of Mr. Weston. They may locate here.

Mr. Cramer bought two fine hogs from Mr. McHugh last week.

A large crowd of rooters went to Arlington Sunday to the ball game.

Everyone is interested in the Road Bond issue.

Plans are being made to complete the school house. It can not be properly ventilated as it stands, and it is necessary to have class rooms. The auditorium was partitioned off for class rooms, but the thin wall does not prevent the noise in one room from being carried through into the other rooms. We ask for the support of each one in the community.

Mr. Thomas, our barber, was at his place of business as usual, on Saturday and Sunday.

Plans are being made for a new hotel. Won't be long till we can boast of hotel service.

Boardman was "way over the top" in the last Liberty Loan drive. Some subscribed who had not invested in either of the others.

Mrs. J. F. Gorham of Hermiston spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Blayden.

Mr. and Mrs. Murchie of Hermiston were visitors at the home of Harry Murchie on Sunday.

Robert Bradley and Chat Atterberry returned home last week after a long adventure into Montana.

Miss Glean Dunton has been working for Mr. Ballenger after school hours. Mrs. Burns, who has been doing his bookkeeping, had to give it up on account of her eyes. Prof. Burg and Sidney Mack went to Hermiston Wednesday business.

Some Good Land Trades
640 acres wheat and stock range with buildings, water and fences, $12.50 per acre, to trade for land town property in this locality.

160 acres irrigated farm near Bend with 65 acres in cultivated buildings, fences, water right up on 108 acres, balance $50 per acre, irrigated part, $65 per acre, trade for a smaller tract here. Owner's family requires lower altitude.

Five 10-acre tracts on Umatilla project to trade for town property. Owner cannot improve and would consider non-irrigated or dry farming land. Also a 20 acre tract that can be traded for horses or construction outfit.
