HERMISTON LOCALS

Mrs. J. W. McDermid is about recovered from a very severe week's illness.

Mrs. Schinke and little daughter have been passing the week visiting with relatives in Milton, Ore.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pierson arrived this week from Madras, where they have been located the past two months.

There have been several cases of measles in a light form reported to the health authorities in this city this week.

Mrs. J. H. Young leaves Saturday night for Portland, where she will represent Queen Esther Chapter, O. E. S., at Grand Lodge.

E. T. Russell and Lawrence Bryant returned Saturday last from Seattle and Portland, where they had been visiting last week.

Miss Pearl Sullivan is enjoying a visit at the paternal home in the eastern outskirts of this city after a lengthy attendance at a Portland business college.

Rev. G. Leroy Hall will speak at the Baptist church Sunday morning and evening. A short Children's Day program will be given during the Sunday school hour.

Attorney Joseph T. Hinkle was in Prosser, Wash., a few days this week looking after matters having to do with the formation of the Horse Heaven Irrigation District.

Miss Judith Kelly arrived home the latter part of last week from an extended visit with relatives in Portland. The young lady has resumed her duties as bookkeeper in Lays' Garage.

W. A. Shawver and family are now occupying their new home in the east end of town on Fourth street that they recently secured in trade for their ranch in Hermiston to F. G. McKenzie a short time ago.

A son was born Tuesday of this week to Mr. and Mrs. E. Russell. The mother of the new arrival is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Bryant, and the grandparents are as happy as the parents over its arrival.

Irvin D. Latham, employed by the Willy-Overland Co. of Toledo, Ohio, will feature their line of cars exclusively for Sappers' Inc. His territory will include Boardman to Echo. Mr. Latham is late of Portland, but comes from the Toledo factory.

George Corse is enjoying the pleasure of a new Dort auto that he purchased this week from the Hermiston Auto Co. C. R. Turner also is the owner of an Oakland that he purchased from the same concern this week and took to his home in Umatilla.

A grass fire which might have been serious occurred in the rear of the Tum-a-Lum Lumber Co.'s yard Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Both departments of the fire company were called out and the blaze was subdued without damage. A high wind was blowing at the time.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Seaman were Irrigon visitors to this city Wednesday, having made the trip overland in their new auto. They were accompanied by Dr. D. J. Powell, a lady dentist resident at Grangeville, Idaho, who is visiting her relative, Byron Powell, an extensive farmer of Irrigon, and Mrs. Chas. Brackenburgh of Irrigon.

Can you smell the sweet scent of new mown hay these days? You ought to, for from all parts of the project tons of the first cutting of alfalfa has begun to roll in, and already hay merchants of this city have rolled out several carloads and started them on their way to the Portland and other markets.

The H. O. A. club met Thursday of last week at the home of Mrs. A. Beisse in honor of Miss Gould. A good attendance was present and much work was accomplished. Miss Gould's name was added to the membership roll. Mrs. Hood of the Neighborhood club was an all day visitor. A delicious picnic lunch was served at 1:30. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Rowe on June 13.
