

To the Farmers and Dairymen

SILOS

WILL SAVE

1. One-half the cost of feeding.
2. All the forage crop you grow
3. That part of your crop that evaporates and dries up when shocked or cured in the field.
4. Your money—more than its cost the first year.

WILL BE

5. The biggest dividend payer on the farm.

ENSILAGE

1. Will produce milk for not more than one-half what it is costing you now.
2. Will feed from 3 to 5 times as many stock from a given acreage as you are now doing.
3. Will fatten beef cattle or sheep for not more than one-half what it is costing you now.
4. Will increase the butter fat in your milk (no matter what breed you are keeping) by at least 10 per cent.
5. Will enable you to get winter eggs in almost summer quantities if fowls are properly housed.
6. Will save enormous waste that results in curing and feeding forage by old method—in turning your forage crop into a succulent feed.

Look Out for Fires

The intense heat and dry weather has been the cause of several fires being started by passing trains this week. A careful watch should be kept, not only along the railroad but in other parts of the project, for ignition of the dry grasses is liable to occur at any moment at any place on the project or in the city. Weeds should be burned around all homes—both farm and city—to insure the greatest possible protection against loss by fire during the dry season now prevailing. Also burn the rubbish, and in fact make a general clean-up around the premises.

Better to Have Stayed

A letter received by The Herald from Ed. Maher, who with his family left here close on a year ago to go on a dairy ranch he bought at Tenino, Wash., indicates that he has reached the conclusion that it would have been better for him to never have moved, for he winds up his epistle thusly: "I bought a dairy ranch here, but think we would have been better satisfied if we had stayed at Hermiston, for we now have to pay $37.50 per ton for alfalfa hay that was shipped from there last winter."

No Meeting

The meeting of captains for the proposed drive to secure funds among the farmers for the opening of another cooperative store in Hermiston that was scheduled to take place in the library last Saturday evening had to be abandoned on account of there being only a few of the members of that committee present. This evening another meeting is to take place in the library, at which time it is expected every captain will be in attendance. It is the purpose to begin the work of soliciting stock for the new store as early as possible, and the only reason for this work not being well along now is that every rancher is busier than a hen with a dozen chickens harvesting the first hay crop.

COLUMBIA NEWS NOTES

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE

Mr. and Mrs. Coryelle left this week for Seattle, where they expect to reside in future.

C. Thompson this week purchased the 40 acre tract just across the road from the Blessing home, and will begin improvements at once.

At the annual school meeting held on Monday Otto Heini was elected director and H. Sommerer clerk. On Monday evening, June 23, an adjourned meeting of the regular meeting will be held, and it is very important that all parents of children going to school be there.

Mrs. W. W. Rogers came home Thursday from Pendleton, where she had been for a time at St. Anthony's hospital with one of her children, who was quite ill.

Mrs. Alex Nyholm and sons Harry and Roy of Portland are visitors this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jane Skovbo. The ladies are sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Ott and children were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walt Davis in Hermiston.

Mrs. Klaus and son from Minnesota are visiting at the home of their friends, Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Phipps.

Paul Miller has been quite ill the past week, but is now able to be up and around.

Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Phipps were Pendleton visitors Friday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Banks have been called to Yakima, Wash., on account of the serious illness of their daughter.

Mrs. W. A. Leathers has returned home from Portland after spending the past week there. She was accompanied by Miss Leathers of Seattle, daughter of W. A. Leathers.

George Beddow killed a rattlesnake on his place one day last week that had nine rattles and a button. Mr. Hartle killed three on the Hoisington place a short time before.

Miss Elizabeth Tilton, sister of Mrs. Wallace Spencer, arrived in Hermiston from La Grande last Saturday and will spend the summer here.

A Lawn Party

The city council at its regular meeting Wednesday evening deviated from its usual method of holding its sessions in the assembly room of the library. This came about on account of excessive heat of that day and evening and the inviting lawn surrounding the library. After assembling someone suggested an open air meeting, and quickly it was decided the council have a little lawn party on the grounds in front of the library building. It was a rather unique affair, and in the course of the meeting a few spectators joined the gathering.

The city solons convened just as Old Sol had hid himself behind the horizon in the golden west—and well he did, for Mayor McKenzie and Alderman Watson, at least—both of whom have long since become eligible to sit on the front row benches of any well regulated congregation.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved and routine business transacted.

The sidewalk betterment proposition came up again—as it does annually—but this time it looks as if an ordinance will be passed that will absolutely force property owners to repair, rebuild and put in new sidewalks. The paving of Main street was also discussed, and it was agreed that the time had arrived when this work should be undertaken and accomplished, now that the Columbia Highway is about to be built through the city.

The constitution and bylaws of the Hermiston Fire Department were read and adopted. Fire Chief Kingsley reported on fire alarms and fires for the current month, three small fires that did no great amount of damage having been recorded.

Moved to Tillamook

Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Baker, old time residents of Hermiston who have been living in Portland for a number of years, have left the Rose City and are now residing in Tillamook, Ore.

NOTICE

All streets on which hose are laid at a fire are closed. Any one driving over a line of hose will be prosecuted.
