HERMISTON

LOCALS

Herbert Sullivan returned Sunday from Wasco, where he visited with friends for several days.

Mrs. M. A. Brown was a business visitor in Pendleton Tuesday of this week, returning Wednesday.

H. L. Payne had the bad luck of having to undergo an operation on an infected toe Monday last.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Ballenger of Boardman were Hermiston business visitors Friday of last week.

Mrs. Walter Davis departed this week for Colfax, Wash., for a visit to her parents, who live at that place.

Miss Virginia Todd came from Pendleton Sunday and visited with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Todd.

Morgan O'Connell, who has been in Payette, Idaho, the past two months, returned to Hermiston Sunday last.

Miss Wilma Forrest of Austin, Texas, was a visitor in the city a few days this week. The lady was a book agent.

Miss Mae Davis of Irrigon visited Wednesday and Thursday in this city with her friends, the Misses Effie and Ivy Goodwin.

Newell West, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. West, was a visitor at the parental home a few days this week, coming from Norfolk, Va.

W. O. Payne, from New Jersey, was a visitor in Hermiston at the home of his brother, H. L. Payne, the latter part of last week.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Jackson of Minnehaha district was taken to St. Anthony's hospital in Pendleton Tuesday for medical treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. Elvinger, from Tillamook, Oregon, are guests this week at the B. L. Beals residence. Mrs. Elvinger is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Beals.

Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Kingsley and daughter Eldora left Wednesday morning on an extended tour of Oregon by auto. They expect to be gone two or more weeks.

Mrs. T. F. Rhoey and two children, Lois and Frederick, of Omaha, Neb., are guests at the C. E. Baker residence. Mrs. Rhoey expects to remain in Hermiston for the summer.

Mrs. H. Hitt and children, Dick and Dorothy, left Tuesday afternoon for Hot Lake for a few weeks stay. While there Mrs. Hitt will undergo an operation for the removal of her tonsils.

F. D. Stanley has purchased and is now occupying the Reed home on the West Side in which R. C. Todd and family has resided for a long time. It was an even swap, though, for Mr. and Mrs. Todd moved into the house vacated by the Stanleys.

C. W. LaBarre came home from Portland yesterday, where he had been since Monday. He was preceded to the Rose City by Mrs. LaBarre, who was called there by the death of her father, J. C. Millet. The lady will remain another two weeks in Portland.

Phil L. Lay went to Portland Wednesday to drive home a Chevrolet truck for delivery to Wm. Sutherland of this city. In a letter he reports that all cars of every description have been sold out in the factory branch house in Portland, thus causing a scarcity.

Harold Sullivan was a business visitor in Pendleton Tuesday. He went there to take the examination for a students' training course at the O. A. C., the expenses to be borne by the government. He feels confident that he will pass, and is already making preparation to go to Corvallis in September.

Ustil Hiatt, formerly of this city, arrived Wednesday from Seattle for a few days visit here with relatives and friends. He is on his way to the home of his parents in Idaho. The young man was just recently discharged from the navy after being in service for more than a year. He is a graduate of the 1917 class of the Hermiston high school, and has many friends among the young people here.

IT'S TOO WARM TO COOK

with the old fashioned stove, but even these days it is not drudgery to prepare a meal with one of our

Florence Automatic or Perfection Oil Stoves

We have sold many of these stoves and would gladly have you talk with any user as to their satisfaction.

We would also suggest that you buy one of our

North Pole Refrigerators

They are clean, economical and will do much to preserve food during the warm weather.
