HERMISTON

LOCALS

Col. Newport was a visitor in Pendleton Monday on business.

Mrs. J. D. Watson visited in Pendleton the latter part of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Leathers left Tuesday for a two weeks outing at Wallowa lake.

Mrs. Geo. Holland and daughter Dorothy left this morning for a two weeks visit at Seaside, Ore.

Werdna Isbell is here from Hood River on a visit to her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Strohm.

Luella McCoy has been suffering from a fever attack all this week, but is now a little better. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. McCoy.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Seaman and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Walpole were Irigon sightseers in Hermiston last Saturday, motoring up in Mr. Seaman's new car.

Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Elliott were visitors to Pendleton last Saturday. Mr. Elliott is operator of a vulcanizing establishment on the West Side in this city.

Mrs. John Leek, wife of a well known North Ridge rancher, is enjoying a month's visit at the home of her daughter, Mrs. H. Jacobson, in Adams, Oregon.

Robert Sulphin of Middletown, Ohio, and Edward Schwartz of Seattle, Wash., are here passing their summer vacation at the home of their aunt, Mrs. A. E. Robb, on the West Side.

Mrs. Myron Hunt returned to Hermiston Thursday after spending the past six weeks visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Rice, who live in Idaho.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Johnson expect to leave early next week for Portland, where they will spend a two weeks' vacation visiting relatives and friends.

Ask W. A. Leathers how it feels to be chased by a speed cop, and then top off the question by ascertaining from him how it feels to be caught by one. He'll tell you—and then some.

Mrs. Cato Johns, Jr. is quite ill with typhoid fever. She was removed from the Johns ranch northwest of town Thursday to the hospital of Mrs. McGlaughlin on Gladys avenue for treatment.

Mrs. S. C. Logan and daughter returned to their home in Anaconda, Montana, the latter part of last week after a pleasant visit in this city with her cousin, Mrs. L. E. Bryant, at the Fraser home.

Mrs. Charles Holdman, one of the early homesteaders on Butter Creek, has been very sick the past week at the home of Mrs. Waterman, where she is staying while being treated. A daughter, who is a nurse at Mercy hospital in Eugene, came on a visit to her parent.

Miss Pearl Sullivan, who has been a guest at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. P. Sullivan, the past two months, left for Portland Monday to resume her duties as stenographer and bookkeeper with a leading firm in that city.

Mrs. Verlin Graham (nee Gladys West) and little daughter accompanied Mrs. W. A. Correll and daughter Josephine on their return journey from Portland last Sunday, to remain a couple of weeks visiting at the home of her parents in this city.

Payment on the Victory Loan bonds became due and payable at the First National bank in Hermiston on July 15. Those who have forgotten about this second payment in this district should get a hustle on and attend to this matter at once.

Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Sapper leave tomorrow for Portland to remain a week. They will take advantage of the "Buyers' Week" entertainment, and Mr. Sapper will look after business matters and also purchase the holiday stock for Sappers' Inc. hardware store.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Percey motored to Pendleton Saturday last. Mr. Percey reports the roads as being something fierce between here and that city, especially after entering Spain gulch, where a continuation of chuck holes nearly all the way from there on are encountered.

IT'S TOO WARM TO COOK

with the old fashioned stove, but even these days it is not drudgery to prepare a meal with one of our

Florence Automatic or Perfection
Oil Stoves

We have sold many of these stoves and would gladly have you talk with any user as to their satisfaction.

We would also suggest that you buy one of our

North Pole Refrigerators

They are clean, economical and will do much to preserve food during the warm weather.
