LOCALS

Mrs. H. G. Newport is away to Portland on a visit to friends.

Dr. W. W. Halsey was a Pendleton business visitor Tuesday of this week.

J. J. Caserly has for sale a black mare, weight over 1600 pounds—a perfect animal.

Adolf Skovbo, progressive farmer of Boardman, was an over Sunday and Monday business visitor in this city.

F. A. Chezik, general merchant of the West Side, attended to business matters in Portland a few days this week.

Victor and Perry Jensen, Chester Pelmulder and Fred Hesser, Jr., left Sunday for a week's outing at Bingham Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Gentry and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Boyer and family of Heppner were guests at the Root home Tuesday.

Miss Everette Kingsley, who just completed her course at O. A. C., came home Saturday of last week to spend the summer.

Miss Bryant, teacher in the schools of Great Falls, Mont., is a guest at the home on Gladys avenue of her sister, Mrs. H. T. Fraser.

Dr. Hoisington of Pendleton spent Thursday here looking over his alfalfa farm east of town, which Tom Haddox is operating for him.

Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Kingsley are in Portland enjoying the festivities incident to "Buyers' Week," having entrained for this city Tuesday night.

Marie and Marjorie Pelmulder returned to Hermiston Monday last from Walla Walla after spending two weeks there with their grandmother, Mrs. Rogers.

Miss Golda Mumma arrived home Thursday morning from Portland, in which city she had been for seven weeks taking a course in music in the Ellis & White conservatory.

Miss Nita Patrick returned to Hermiston Monday after an absence of six weeks visiting her father at Dayton, and friends that reside there and at Walla Walla, Wash.

Miss Hazel Strain, in her junior year at O. A. C., who is spending the vacation period at her home in Pendleton, visits last Saturday and Sunday in Hermiston at the home of her brother Clayton.

Mrs. Clayton Strain left the first of the week on a visit to the parental home in Spokane. She was accompanied by her brother, Ernest Crockett, who was a guest for a few days at the Strain home in this city.

The Misses Leah and Doris Percy departed for Portland Monday of this week to attend "Buyers' Week." Before returning home they will stop a few days in Wasco and visit with Mr. and Mrs. Steve McMillin, who formerly resided here.

John Schimke of the Hermiston Auto Co. called into town Tuesday evening in a brand new Reo touring car, which he secured in Pendleton. Being local agent for this type of car, the above concern is now diligently showing its fine points to prospective buyers.

Mrs. M. A. Brown and daughter Mabel and Mr. Young, father of Mrs. Brown, who has been visiting in Hermiston the past couple of weeks, departed Thursday for Portland, where they will stay a week and then go on to Seaside, to remain until the first of September.

H. H. Mack, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Mack, stopped off in Hermiston Tuesday of this week on his way to Portland to attend "Buyers' Week." Mr. Mack drove through in his big Stutz roadster. He is engaged in the drug business at Huntington, and will probably stop for a week on the return journey.

Mayor F. C. McKenzie "hopped off" to Seaside Tuesday night to join his family at that well known summer resort. Others in this city who have since and are about to emulate the action of the worthy mayor, and whose families are at Seaside, are C. S. McNaught, F. B. Swayze and Dr. F. V. Prime.

Postmaster J. H. Young went to Portland Monday on business. He is expected home today.

IT'S TOO WARM TO COOK

with the old fashioned stove, but even these days it is not drudgery to prepare a meal with one of our

Florence Automatic or Perfection Oil Stoves

We have sold many of these stoves and would gladly have you talk with any user as to their satisfaction.

We would also suggest that you buy one of our

North Pole Refrigerators

They are clean, economical and will do much to preserve food during the warm weather.
