HERMISTON

LOCALS

Miss Viola Crandall has returned from her vacation visit in Idaho.

Mrs. Jessup of Irrigon was the guest of her grandson, Gordon Strader, in this city over Sunday.

P. B. Siseel and Dr. J. A. Peed were business visitors to Pendleton Monday of this week.

Mrs. J. W. McDermid and daughter Miss Marguerite passed Monday in Pendleton visiting with friends.

Mrs. Royal Rands, who was the guest of her friend, Mrs. B. Haneline, several days last week, left Sunday for her home in Boardman.

Edward McKeen left Sunday for Portland, where he expected to secure and hold-down a situation in one of the business houses in that city.

Wallace and Howard Reid, who had been passing a week in Spokane visiting at the home of their father's sister, Mrs. Thos. Hayes, returned Thursday morning.

Nicholas Codd, president of the Hermiston Light & Power Co., spent most of the week here with Frank and Joe Ralph, his associates in the above concern.

Mrs. H. T. Fraser and son Hugh are enjoying the ocean breezes at Seaside this week, having departed Tuesday for that well known and popular summer resort.

F. A. Phelps went to Boardman Wednesday on business connected with the Phelps-Voyen Co., in which feed and hay firm he is associated with his son-in-law, Carl Voyen.

W. L. Swan, rancher southwest of Hermiston and clerk of Minnehaha school district, is passing a few days in Portland attending to personal business and visiting with his family.

C. C. Green, who has been in Eastern Washington the past ten months, returned Wednesday to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Green, ranchers a mile southwest of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Challis are passing their summer's outing in the Blue mountains at Hidaway and Lehman springs. They left by auto early in the week, to be gone seven or eight days.

Mrs. J. H. Elliott and two daughters left for their home in Portland Wednesday after being guests for a week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Wilson a mile west of Hermiston. The ladies are sisters.

E. W. Mack, Jr., recently honorably discharged from the navy, in which he held the position of machinist's second mate on the gunboat Marblehead, is enjoying a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Mack, in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Shaar are passing the week in Colfax, Wash., as guests at the home of the lady's parents. C. V. Wilson, old time barber now ranching here, is substituting for Mr. Shaar during his absence.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Waghorn arrived home Wednesday from a week's visit pleasantly passed with friends in Portland, Hood River, Ore., and Vancouver, Wash. While in the Rose City they were guests at one of the Civic Club's weekly dinners.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Elsea and two children are here from Ontario, Cal., to remain a couple of weeks as guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Schilling, the ladies being sisters. They came overland in their auto from Rupert, Idaho, where they made a short visit to relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Smith motored from their home in Grants Pass and passed the week visiting at the farm home east of town of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Banks. They were joined at Weston by Mrs. Van Skiver, who visited a couple of days at the Banks ranch. The three ladies are sisters.

Project Manager H. M. Schilling left Wednesday for Council, Idaho, where he owns a ranch of 110 acres, stocked with horses and cattle. He expects to be away a week or ten days, and during that time will endeavor to sell off the stock and dispose of the ranch. He deems this necessary on account of the scarcity of help and the uncertainty of keeping a renter.

with the old fashioned stove, but even these days it is not drudgery to prepare a meal with one of our

Florence Automatic or Perfection Oil Stoves

We have sold many of these stoves and would gladly have you talk with any user as to their satisfaction.

We would also suggest that you buy one of our

North Pole Refrigerators

They are clean, economical and will do much to preserve food during the warm weather.
