HERMISTON LOCALS

Mr. and Mrs. Myron Hunt have moved from the West Side and are now residing on Newport avenue on the East Side.

Mrs. C. S. McNaught and children, Joe and Nancy, came home Wednesday from their lengthy vacation visit at Seaside and Portland.

Miss Viola Crandall has been confined to her bed this week with tonsillitis. The young lady was quite ill for a time, but is recovering.

Mrs. J. T. Embry, who has been ill from hay fever, left Sunday on a visit to relatives and friends in Chicago, where she will remain until the fall weather begins here.

Miss Ada Prann, bookkeeper for the Hermiston Light & Power Co., came home Friday morning of last week from a two weeks vacation visiting with friends in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Watson, their daughter Clarice and son John, are this week mingling with the ocean breezes and listening to the wild waves in a cottage at Seaside, Ore.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Kingsley left Sunday on their week's summer vacation, and are now enjoying the pleasures of a fishing and hunting trip on the west side of the Cascades.

Miss Helen Dean of Seattle is in Hermiston this week visiting her brother, Harold K. Dean, superintendent of the government experiment station.

Charles Skinner, one of the old timers who has been located west of the mountains the past year, returned the latter part of last week, and is now holding a position with the Shotwell Construction Co.

D. R. Brownell, one of Umatilla county's oldest residents, who with his son Earl is operating a mercantile establishment and meat market in the city of Umatilla, was a business visitor to Hermiston Monday.

Mrs. A. S. Johnson returned Sunday after a two weeks' stay in Portland, during which time she was at the bedside of Mr. Johnson, who is now convalescing after undergoing an operation.

Mrs. C. G. Bryant and daughter Miss Clara, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Fraser, left Tuesday for Anaconda, Montana, where Miss Bryant holds a position in the schools of that city.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Pratt arrived Monday from Kennewick, and are passing the week visiting at the ranch home of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Voliva, three miles east of town. Mr. Pratt is a brother of Mrs. Voliva.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. McKeen departed Saturday of last week for Seaside, where they are now spending the week on the seashore. During their absence their daughter Bertha is a house guest of Yudeth Kelley.

Mrs. H. L. Payne is recovering nicely from an operation recently performed in a Portland hospital, where she is now recuperating. The lady had been ailing ever since passing through a siege of the flu early in the year.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Finley, wheat ranchers from near Heppner, visited with Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Galther on North Ridge last Sunday. On their return home they carried with them a quantity of canning fruit in their auto that they purchased while here.

Dr. F. V. Prime returned Monday after a ten day vacation at Seaside. He was accompanied by Mrs. Prime and their little son Frank, Jr., they having been at the above named summer resort the past two months. While there the little fellow sustained a fracture of a wrist by falling on it.

Father Butler, who has been at The Dalles the past couple of months filling a vacancy, visited here Sunday and Monday, and departed Monday evening on a trip east that will cover several weeks. On his return he expects to again take up his duties in the church here.

August F. Benschel was in town last Saturday from his North Ridge ranch, having along with him a seedling peach from a tree on his place which was large and symmetrically perfect. The crop of Elbertas this year on the Benschel ranch is of the very finest, both as to size and quality.
