HERMISTON LOCALS

Mrs. Phil L. Lay left Tuesday for Portland to pass a week visiting at the home of her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. I. D. Basey were over from their home near Heppner on business Monday last.

Mr. and Mrs. George Rayhill came Sunday from Portland, and passed the week here visiting friends.

Mrs. Geo. R. Shafer and children are away to Seattle enjoying a visit at the home of Mrs. Shafer's mother.

Mrs. E. H. Geary of Portland is a guest at the home of her parents, Col. and Mrs. J. F. McNaught, on the West Side.

Mrs. D. Roberts of Pendleton was an over Sunday guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Bryant, the ladies being sisters.

Mrs. H. R. Newport and son Marshall arrived home the first of the week from their eastern visit to Detroit, Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Shaw and child of The Dalles are guests at the Cold Springs home of the young man's father, E. E. Shaw.

Mrs. Philip Baars and little daughter left Sunday for Kenosha, Wis., where they will visit the next few months with relatives.

Miss Eleanor Casserly and Miss Dorothy Ross leave Monday next for Corvallis, where it is understood, they will take up the study of home economics.

W. A. Ford, former principal of the Umatilla schools, and now a prosperous dairy and poultry farmer near the city of Umatilla, was in Hermiston Wednesday on business.

Mrs. F. T. Donovan and daughter Dorothy arrived Monday from Fort Wayne, Ind. They expect to remain for some time with Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Johnson. Mrs. Donovan is a niece of Mrs. Johnson.

F. A. Phelps is again laid up from a return attack of pleurisy. He is reported to be getting along toward recovery under careful nursing of Mrs. Phelps and their daughter, Mrs. C. M. Voyer, who is here from Boardman.

A. S. Johnson, who had been in a Portland hospital for some time following a series of operations, returned home the latter part of last week. After gaining a little more strength he will resume his clerical duties in the O.-W. R. & N. offices in this city.

E. A. Hobbs left the first of the week for Portland, where he will take a clerical position with a large business firm in that city. His position of bookkeeper at the Hermiston Cooperative Creamery has been filled by acceptance of the position by Miss Enid Waterman.

Mrs. Klok and son arrived from Portland Thursday, and have joined Mr. Klok on their farm home in Columbia district. Their household goods arrived Thursday, and when it is put in place they will be comfortably situated on the ranch that they recently purchased from Otto Sapper.

C. B. Clark who for many years has followed railroad construction work in the capacity of bookkeeper and commissary man, has taken a position with the Newport Constuction Co., and is now on duty in the office recently established by the company in the brick building one door west of Phelps' Cash Grocery on the West Side.

Mrs. J. K. Shotwell has returned from McMinnville, where she put everything in readiness for her daughter and son, Emily and Irvin, who have gone there to attend McMinnville college the forthcoming term. Miss Margaret Shotwell is attending college at Monmouth this year, and Gordon Shotwell departed Thursday for Corvallis to enter the O. A. C.

Mrs. J. H. Acuff and Mrs. R. H. Elsea, mother and sister of Mrs. H. M. Schilling, returned to their home in Rupert, Idaho, last Sunday at the conclusion of a delightful visit. A month ago Mr. and Mrs. Elsea came overland in their auto from Idaho on their way to California, but on account of the illness of their child Mrs. Elsea decided to remain here, her husband proceeding to the Golden State, where important business matters demanded his attention.

Dr. Freeze makes regular visits to Hermiston. Consult him free and be assured of good eye service. 36
