HERMISTON

LOCALS

Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Murchie are away to The Dalles on a month's visit to relatives.

John F. Reihl returned last Saturday from a seven weeks business trip to The Dalles and Portland.

Mrs. J. S. Dyer departed Thursday for a month's visit to the home of her parents in Clear Lake, S. D.

Mrs. F. A. Phelps visited in Pendleton yesterday, being a guest while there of her sister-in-law, Mrs. G. W. Phelps.

H. Montgomery and T. E. Hendrick, well known Boardman ranchers, were transacting business in Hermiston last Saturday.

C. G. Blayden, who has the honor of being Boardman's first depot agent, was a business visitor to this city Monday and Tuesday.

C. W. Tilden, manager of the Tillamook ranch adjoining this city, returned last Saturday from a business visit to Tillamook, Ore.

L. H. Pearson, who had been here several weeks looking after his large farm interests in this neighborhood, has returned to his home in Tacoma.

Clarence Roberts, well known rancher a few miles west of town, has purchased two carloads of sheep, which he is pasturing in this vicinity.

D. R. Brownell and Earl C. Brownell, one a retired and the other an active merchant of Umatilla, were in this city Wednesday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Prior have as their guest at their home in this city the lady's father, John Quinlin, who is here from Portland on a couple of months' visit.

C. W. Kellogg left last week for the Texas oil fields, where he will probably remain and locate permanently in one of the many oil boom towns in that state.

Earl Cramer, of the general merchandise firm of Cramer, Kelley & Cramer at Boardman, was transacting business in Hermiston Monday and Tuesday of this week.

Dan Rancier, formerly resident of this city but now in the employ of the reclamation service at Boardman, was shaking hands with old friends Monday while here on business.

Miss Mabel Brown has undergone a severe illness from chicken pox. The young lady has almost recovered, though at times last week her fever ran very close to the danger point.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Mayran and children departed last Saturday for Denver, Colo., to make their future home. They had resided in this city nearly a year, during which time Mr. Mayran was a member of the contracting firm of Correll & Mayran.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Straw and children are now comfortably situated in their magnificent new home on their well improved orchard tract in the southern part of the city. F. W. Whiting and family have taken the residence on Gladys avenue vacated by Mr. Straw.

Judge Card, well known Washington state jurist, and President Case of the Sumner-Puyallup bank, both of whom are interested in lands on this project, were here from Tacoma and Sumner Sunday and Monday. While here they were guests of their old friend, L. D. Lay.

Ernest Schimke, who served in the navy for 22 months, part of the time over seas, received his discharge at Bremerton October 14, is now here on a visit to his brother, John Schimke, of the Hermiston Auto Co. Being a good auto mechanic he has been induced to take a position with Mr. Tewell in the garage of the Hermiston Auto Co.

R. L. Tippie, the genial manager of the Tum-a-Lum Lumber Co. at Umatilla, and also operator of a motor truck line in and out of that city, while passing through Hermiston on high with a load of flour from the Echo Flour Mills to feed the hungry in the neighboring town, espied the editor of The Herald's thin and emaciated form in front of the office Tuesday. Forthwith he applied the brakes, reached his hand in his pocket, drew out $1.50 for advancement of his subscription a year, and kindly told us to go and get something to eat. We did.

All in a Fit.
Just recently, while attending a marriage of a newly wed acquaintance of mine, I happened to be in the grill room, surrounded by my friends and enjoying myself to the full extent. Unconscious of the bride's presence, I remarked: "John will lead a dog's life; his wife had him on the string for three years before they married." Presumably the guests had overheard the remark, for they were all in a fit of laughter and I in a fit to find the exit.—Exchange.

Alfalfa Farmers Take Notice
Harvesting Equipment for Sale.
Money Saved by Buying Now.

Finding it necessary to change my system of putting up hay, I have determined to sell all of my present equipment that is not usable in the new system, such as derricks, trucks, slings, nets, Jackson-fork, etc., etc.

Everything I offer is in first class order, of the non-breakable kind and practically the same as new. Naturally I want to make the old equipment pay for the new, which must be secured this winter, and to accomplish this I will discount liberally on all articles sold now. I can use bankable paper.

Call at Highland Farm and inspect "the goods."
