NOTICE

We are pleased to announce that we have made arrangements with a first class plumber, one who has had many years actual plumbing experience, to do our plumbing work for us. We are therefore prepared from now on to make quotations for all kinds of plumbing and steam fitting, and will be glad to submit figures for any work of this nature that the citizens of the Hermiston Country may be needing. Bath room installations will have especial attention, and only first class material and workmanship supplied.

HERMISTON

LOCALS

J. Pelmulder returned Sunday from a short business trip to Pendleton.

Miss Ida Powell of Umatilla was visiting friends and shopping in this city last Monday.

Mrs. Frank Silvey returned this week after a ten day visit at the home of her daughter in Wasco.

William Thomas of Dixie, Wash., was here last week visiting his brother Stephen in Columbia District.

Mrs. Esther Smith of Wasco is visiting here with her mother, Mrs. L. A. Stone, and her brother, Frank Stone.

Mrs. Orrin Boyer of Ontario, Ore., arrived last Saturday for a week's visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hayden.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse White were Boardman visitors in this city last Saturday, returning to their home Sunday.

Eli Winesett left Wednesday for Portland on a business trip that he expected would detain him in the Rose City several days.

Mrs. Percy E. Jones and little daughter of Boardman were in town the first of the week having dental work done by Dr. Prime.

Mrs. D. Sheehan returned Monday from St. Anthony's hospital, Pendleton, where she has been taking treatment for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Parker, son and daughter, returned last week after a holiday visit at Toppenish with the lady's parents and sisters.

Mrs. H. G. Newport arrived home Wednesday from a week pleasantly spent visiting friends in Portland and at Sunnyside, Wash.

Nathan Dickens, a rancher of Upper Butter Creek, visited here Wednesday and Thursday with numerous of his old Virginia friends.

N. A. Carnell of Paulsbo, Wash., was here a couple of days the first of the week visiting friends and looking after his ranch interests west of town.

Judge J. T. Embry, the well known philosopher of North Ridge, returned the latter part of the week from a fortnight's visit to relatives at Lewiston, Idaho.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wright, daughter and son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Willhite, arrived here Tuesday and are spending a few days visiting at her parents' home.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto G. Sapper are the proud parents of a nine pound baby daughter, born to them at St. Anthony's hospital in Pendleton on Tuesday, January 13, 1920.

C. C. Mason shipped two registered Duroc-Jersey hogs to Tacoma, Wash., Monday. The animals were consigned to parties there who desired to enter upon the raising of this class of swine.

Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Pierce and family returned to their home in Moro, Oregon, Monday after a short visit at the ranch home west of town of Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Wilson. The ladies are sisters.

C. S. McNaught, the man who says little but does much toward the up-building of the town in the way of establishing manufactories, returned the first of the week from a business visit to Condon, Oregon.

Harold McKeen, clerk in the Sisco's confectionery store, has been quite sick at his home east of town this week. His illness was caused by injury from an accidental fall one day last week. During his enforced absence from his duties Cecil Kelley is acting as clerk in his place.

Postmaster Chas. Skinner went to Pendleton Tuesday, and on Wednesday morning took the examination for postmaster to fill the vacancy in the local postoffice caused by the recent resignation of John Young. Mr. Skinner is the only applicant for the position.

Thomas A. Shotwell, who has been with the army of occupation in Siberia for a long time, has reached the coast of California and will soon be mustered out and on his way home. He was one of the first of the many young men of Hermiston to enlist in the war, and also the last to return. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Shotwell of this city.

Hardware Implements

We just received a shipment of those wonderful ranges, our previous supply having been exhausted. If you have a Range in mind, you better investigate this wonderful kitchen necessity. Of course, a Majestic costs a little more than an ordinary range, but there are visible reasons for this, and after more thorough investigation, careful buyers can easily see why buying a Majestic at even a slightly higher price is really economy.
