The dangerous stone bruise

BRUISES mean broken inner fabric, and broken fabric means blowouts—the ruination of more tires than all other causes combined.

Frequently bruises result from under-inflation, but too often they are due to faulty construction and to the shortcomings of ordinary rubber and fabric.

Two years ago the Thermoid chemists discovered Crocidol, which is compounded with Up River Fine Para rubber in four definite ratios:

1—for calendaring each layer of fabric

2—for the cushion inside or below the breaker strip

3—for the intermediate bond between the breaker strip and tread

4—for the tread of the tire

This process adds strength and elasticity to the fabric and rubber and has done much in combating the stone bruise, tread separation, blowouts, and all common evils that make tires short lived.

You can't pull the tread off a Thermoid Tire

One Thermoid Crocidol Compound Tire will prove this to you. You taken risk, for this tire is sold on a basis of 6000 miles of guaranteed service (Ford sizes 7500 miles).
