CONSERVE ON GASOLINE

by approved.

"Second—That the daily gasoline ration for pleasure vehicles be not over 20 per cent of the tank capacity when leaving the station after filling, and that the daily gasoline ration for commercial machines be not over 75 per cent of the tank capacity when leaving the station after filling.

"Third—That except in case of absolutely necessary use, motorists be urged to leave their cars at home."

Commercial cars were defined, as follows:

- 1—Automotive transportation of freight and passengers for hire.
- 2—Hotel busses, taxicabs or sight seeing vehicles, stages.
- 3—Delivery and food conveyances when so used.
- 4—Road construction transportation.
- 5—Municipal, state, county or school transportation cars, when used in the discharge of public service.
- 6—Physicians' cars, ambulances.

Many telegrams were read from different sections of the state as well as from adjoining states and we find the conditions are alarming. Industries, trucks, farm tractors and necessary deliveries using gasoline should be shown a preference in all cases and we trust some plan will be put into effect that will bring about the desired result.

Every section must adopt regulations that will best serve its own interest and we are writing this letter to make known how seriously Portland considers this question and the action it has taken.

Representatives of the four oil companies stated to the committee that every section of the state would receive its regular allotment and if any gasoline is saved for the convention period in Portland, it must be saved by the citizens of Portland from the Portland allocation.

Should anyone know of any sections against which there is a discrimination in the allotment of gasoline, we should be pleased to have them advise some member of this committee.

Committee: George Quayle, chairman, for Oregon State Chamber of Commerce; W. F. McKenney, for Oregon State Motor Association; M. O. Wilkins, for Dealers' Motor Car Association; Marshall N. Dana, for Presidents' Council of Portland's Business and Civic Clubs.

"NO WOMAN BUT ME!"

"SURE"—BUT HE LIED

Billie Billings' fiance loved her so much that the services of a policeman were required to prevent that untiring but unloved suitor from "cave-manning" her to his abode, in "A Temperamental Wife," starring Constance Talmadge and which will be seen Wednesday night, June 16 at the High School movie.

Miss Talmadge plays the role of the very jealous-natured Miss Billings who determines that her husband must be a man who has never been interested in women and who, after marriage, will be interested in no woman other than herself.

She finds such a man in the person of Senator Newton from Nevada, an unmarried solon, suffering from such ailments as torpid liver, indigestion and flat feet. But they are married; and the Senator proves to be a model husband until Billie runs off with a Bulgarian Count. How Billie tries to regain the confidence of her important husband makes a very interesting and pleasing story.

EDITORS TO TOUR COLUMBIA BASIN IRRIGATION PROJECT

Editors of daily newspapers in Montana, Idaho, Washington and Oregon are to make a study of the Columbia basin irrigation project during a three-day tour to start Thursday, June 24, at Spokane. The object is to give a thorough understanding of the plans in order that the editors may be in a position to inform the public intelligently when the campaign to solidify sentiment is begun.

"Father of Colfax" Dies

James A. Perkins, aged 78, described as the "father of Colfax," died last week. Citizens of Colfax and of Whitman county, Washington have been looking forward to the celebration planned for July 10, which will mark the 50th anniversary of the coming of Mr. Perkins to Colfax. He rode into the Palouse valley in 1870 and had resided there continuously since.
