YIELDS TO MARCH OF TIME

Old Hotel in Quincy, Mass., Associated With Famous Men, is to Become Business Block.

The old Hancock house, situated in City square, Quincy, has ceased to be a hotel. The present owner of the property, Henry M. Faxon, is to have the upper part removed and the first floor converted into a large business block. The hotel has only provided sleeping quarters for a number of years.

In the days of the old stage coach the Hancock house was one of the leading hotels of southeastern Massachusetts and the first place to which travelers resorted for refreshments. Among the distinguished men who have been entertained there was Daniel Webster, going to and from his home on the old Plymouth coach. On account of Mr. Webster's liberality in dispensing good cheer it was frequently a long time before the coach was able to proceed on its trip. Mr. Webster was always generous in his tips to the stable boys and bell hops of those ancient days and history says that he often threw $5 goldpieces to the scrambling boys in the hotel yard.

The present structure was built in 1837, but several years ago the ground floor was remodeled into stores and only the upper part was used as the hotel proper. When Adams academy was in its prime the place was used as a boarding house for students who came to Quincy from other cities and states and were obliged to make their abode in the city of presidents.

Round-Up Buffalo Tamed

Lettie, the Round-Up Buffalo, and Sharkey, the big bucking bull, have been tamed. A woman has done the deed. A fortnight of patience and perseverance by Miss Helen Irving, of Los Angeles, a motion picture actress visiting here, resulted in her being able to bring both to her call. Lettie is noted for her shyness and Sharkey, well, nobody stays on his broad back long. Both these animals are a part of the Round-Up and will be seen in the arena Sept. 23, 24 and 25.

TO THE ALFALFA GROWERS

Is your hay for sale? We buy and sell baled alfalfa hay in car lots. We have storage room for baled hay in any quantity, until the warehouse is full, at 50 cents per ton per month, or part of month.

At present we have some unalotted space. Parties storing hay with us are under no obligation to sell to us, though we give said parties, preference on sale when we are buying. We find it to our advantage to have our hay baled and ready for shipment, when the market demands it.

At the present price of labor it costs about $1.50 per ton to put the hay from the wagon into the stack. This will pay for three months storage, besides having your hay ready for a quick market during this time. We will be pleased to discuss the hay situation with you at any time. Office hours, 9:00 a. m. to 12, and 2:00 p. m. to 5.
