

The High School Mirror

Vol. 1

Devoted to the Interest and Development of the Hermiston Schools

No. 5

Miss Viola Bennett entertained the members of the Senior class at a delightful little party last Saturday evening, given at the Mooney home. The earlier part of the evening was spent in games and dancing, after which the boys left and the girls remained to be present at a slumber (less) party. Candy was served all through the night and at 3:30 a. m. Mrs. Mooney made waffles which were enjoyed very much by all the girls. A few hours were spent in sleep which was followed by a delicious breakfast. Every one present enjoyed a delightful time.

There was a "pep" meeting and serpentine Thursday evening given by the High School to create spirit for the big football game Saturday afternoon.

After the football game Saturday afternoon with Pendleton high school a banquet will be served by the High School in honor of the players.

The committee in charge of the banquet is: Dorothy Briggs, Doris Swayze, Clarice Watson, and Mrs. Voeker. The high school orchestra will play.

The play books for the High School play, arrived Tuesday and work will begin immediately.

It was decided Tuesday afternoon by the High School and all the teachers to go to school Armistice Day until 2:30 and then attend the program at the Play House, and have Friday after Thanksgiving as a holiday instead.

The boys that attended the Older Boys' Conference at Pendleton Friday to Sunday report an interesting and helpful time. Our delegation consisted of 39 boys, by far the largest present, almost double the number that Pendleton had. The School Band was there too, adding much to the interest of the meeting with their selections and received many words of praise for their work. In addition to this our school had the honor of having Dewey Payne elected President of the Conference which office he filled with credit. The boys voted to hold the meeting next year at Heppner and a number have already expressed their intention of going.

Mr. and Mrs. Voelker and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Leathers accompanied the boys and acted as chaperones.

Grade News

A new pupil, Marion Howard has been enrolled in the third grade this week.

Seventeen of the fourth graders were neither absent or tardy last month.

The sixth grade had a spelling match last week and the boys stood up the longer.

The eighth grade has the largest enrollment (39) in the grades.

Frank Stevens of the sixth grade played a cornet solo at the movie last Saturday.

Ernest Parrish has been absent from the seventh grade this week on account of the mumps.

Have you heard of the wheatless days And the meatless days that comes? But have you ever thought of the "Boyleless days," That we have in so many homes?

Thousands of them have gone over the sea Their own life's blood to shed; To fight for honor of the stars and stripes, That shelter you and me.

There are many homes in this land of ours Who have sons who have answered the call; Many of them will go over the top, And many no doubt will fall.

The wheatless days are just for the day And will soon be away and gone. But the boyless days are endless days That go on; and on; and on. Elizabeth Phillips Class of '23

We are solemnly assured by noted economists that Germany is becoming prosperous, and also that she is on the road to ruin. Well, between the two she ought to get somewhere.

Custard Pie

1 cup pastry flour
1/2 teaspoon Royal Baking Powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup shortening
cold water

Sift flour, baking powder and salt; add one-half shortening and rub in lightly with fingers; add water slowly until of right consistency to roll out. Roll out very thin; pat on in small pieces remaining shortening; fold upper and lower edges in to center; fold sides in to center; fold sides in to center again; roll out thin and put on pie plate.

Custard

3 eggs
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 cups scalded milk
1 teaspoon vanilla extract
Beat eggs, add sugar, salt, flavoring and milk very slowly. Line pie plate with paste made as above, and bake in very hot oven about 10 minutes. Pour custard into the baked crust and bake in moderate oven about 25 minutes. The pie is done when a knife put in center of custard comes out dry.

Cocoanut Pie is made the same way, adding 1 cup of shredded cocoanut, and using only 2 eggs.
