Everybody is beginning to dream of Christmas turkey—and most of us will eat chicken.

Of course, we all know that we have our faults, but we are quite convinced that the other fellow has more.

Most men want what is coming to them, but if they were to get it they'd squeal worse than a stuck pig.

This world is full of people who know how to run the other fellow's business, but are never able to make a success of their own.

Messers. Harman and Muelker, blacksmiths, are each putting up temporary houses on the lots recently purchased by them on Huriburt Ave.

George H. Strohm will leave Saturday night for Portland with 50 fat hogs for entry in the fat class at the Pacific International Livestock show in that city, from Nov. 13 to 20.

Make Your Car Productive
Instead of Expensive....

Your Car--

is a saver of valuable time, and therefore a PRODUCER—if you keep down the expense of maintenance.

Neglect will NOT keep down expense. It piles expenses up instead by increasing the consumption of gasoline and destroying your car years before its time.

The wise man hunts a repair shop at the first sign of trouble.

The wisest of all men have their cars examined regularly TO PREVENT THE FIRST SIGN.

A few minutes of examination will prevent hours of repairs.
