the better way of buying your NEW EDISON
for Christmas

BETTER because it brings your New Edison now.
—or for Christmas.
BETTER because it finds the purchase money in your enjoyment expenditure.
BETTER because it systematizes and simplifies buying.
BETTER because it works on thrift principles, and avoids a lump sum payment. It makes possession easy.

NOTICE OF SCHOOL MEETING

Notice is hereby given to the legal voters of School District No. 14 of Umatilla County, State of Oregon, that a School Meeting of said district will be held at the School House on the 10th day of December, 1920, at 3:30 o'clock in the afternoon, to vote on the proposition of levying a special district tax.

The total amount of money needed by the district during the ensuing year is estimated in the following budget and includes the amounts to be received from the county school fund, state school fund, special district tax, and all other moneys of the district.

Total estimated expenses for the year 29,665.00 Total estimated receipts, not including the tax to be voted 10,110.00 Balance, amount to be raised by the district
tax 19,555.00

The amount of money to be raised by this special tax is more than the amount raised by special school district tax in the year immediately preceding this, plus six per cent. It is necessary to raise this additional amount by special levy for the following reasons:

All salaries have been advanced.
There will be two or three more teachers required.
All supplies have increased in price, and more supplies are needed and more improvements on building are needed.

Dated this 8th day of November, 1920.

RAISE PRODUCTION OF HERD

Permanent Advancement Can Only Be Made by Use of Purebred Bull of Good Ancestors.

The only way for everyone to have cows capable of producing a large flow of milk is by better breeding. By better breeding is meant the using of a purebred dairy bull which is a good individual from good producing ancestor. It is only through the use of a good bull that any permanent advancement can be made in the production of the future herd.

Daddy Gobbler's Premonition

There once did live a turkey cock, And he was very proud;
And walking with his little flock He gobbled very loud.
Perhaps it may your feelings shock—He lived beneath a cloud.

He could not speak of cranberry, Nor mention pumpkin pie Without a painful reverie, While tears stood in his eye.
And sage, and summer savory, They always made him sigh.

And though in June he spread his tail, And looked like Henry Eight, November always found him pale, Sans Deisarte in his gait, If anyone would see him quail, Just say "decapitate."

"Think and Thank"
Suggested Motto
for Nation Today

"Think and Thank" was the motto upon the family crest of the great Hebrew philanthropist Sir Moses Monteflore. It would be an appropriate armorial motto for America today.
These two little English words, differing in a single vowel, were originally identical. In the Anglo-Saxon tongue, a "thank" was a "think." Thanking comes from thinking, and thankfulness from thoughtfulness and thanks giving from thought-giving. This will be a season of unusual thanksgiving—for we are made to think as we have not been wont to think. It will be a very selfish soul that this season fails to think of the sorrows and the sufferings of others.

Look back at that first American Thanksgiving. Strange skies, sparse settlements, sparse larder, savage enemy, but thankful spirit! What makes the memory of the Pilgrim so precious? His thankfulness! As Howell puts it:
"It is no improper comparison that a thankful heart is like a box of precious ointment which keeps the smell long after the thing is spent."

The English and the Puritan have passed on, but they have left us precious possession—a Thanksgiving day and the Thanksgiving spirit.
There was the indomitable spirit because they "thanked God and took courage." They landed undesignedly on a "rock-bound wintry strand," but they thanked God and took courage.
They found no gold, but they did find the golden grain of a first harvest and they thanked God and took courage.
They found a rude wilderness, but they thanked God and took courage, and furrows were turned and towns were built and cities grew and factories flourished and culture developed and instead of a wilderness a garden blossomed and the fragrance of their memory still survives and the spirit of their grace still inspires.

Daudet on Gambetta.
Frequently the great man is something of a fool, but it is probable that Daudet exaggerated a trifle when he wrote the following of Gambetta, the great French statesman: "I can still see him entering the dining room, his back bent, his shoulders swaying, his face aflame and one-eyed also. As soon as he appeared all the other equine heads around the table were raised and he was greeted with loud neighs of 'Ah, ah, ah; here's Gambetta!' He sat down noisily, spread himself over the table, or threw himself in his chair, perorated, struck the table with his fists, laughed loud enough to break the windows, pulled all the table cloth toward him, got drunk without drinking, snatched the dishes away from you, took the words out of your mouth, and after talking all the time went off without having said anything."

Something in a Name, After All.
The Bishop of Singapore is not the only prelate who has distinguished himself in the handling of firearms.
Former bishop of Durham, with the rather ominous name of Shute, was an excellent shot with the sporting gun. It was playfully said of him that he never troubled to get out game license, as, if he were asked to produce it, he used to quote the opening words of his own license: "I Shute, by divine permission."—London Morning Mail.

He Was Handicapped.
Lestie had always been very much afraid of dogs.
One day, after a struggle to get him to pass a large dog which stood on the corner, his mother scolded him for his unnecessary fear.
"Well, was his reply, "you'd be afraid of dogs if you were as low down as I am."
