THE PLAYHOUSE

HERMISTON, OREGON

Hermiston Locals

"The Flame of Hellgate," will be the attraction at the Play House on Sunday, December 12th.

A. W. Cobb and Col. Emmett Callahan were Hermiston visitors from Boardman the first of the week.

Miss Genevieve Thomas will leave next Monday for Wisconsin where she will go to school, and will make her future home in that state.

Mrs. Don Campbell returned from Pendleton Friday evening accompanied by her little daughter (whom she introduces to her friends as Baby Sylvia).

Rev. DeLong of the Methodist church at Arlington is assisting the local pastor, Rev. Jackson in a series of meetings at the Columbia School House. The meetings are being well attended and are planned to be continued two weeks.

A letter from Al Larson says he is leaving Washington, D. C., Mr Larson is evidently through with his course of training and is now on the road as a U. S. Revenue Agent. His many friends were hoping that he would be placed on the Pacific coast where they could see him occasionally, but from the tone of his letter he will be in the east for a while.

FISK NON-SKID TIRES

Prices Reduced

The National Standard of Tire Values

Buy at least a pair of Fisk Non-Skies and subject them to a comparative test. Your experience will change your whole idea of tire value—you'll always be a Fisk enthusiast. We know because thousands of car owners began to use Fisk Non-Skids in the very same way. We guarantee satisfaction and do our own adjusting.

We also have a complete stock of Weed Tire Chains and other Automobile Accessories
