Old "New Amsterdam."
 In 1664, on the 9th of September, Peter Stuyvesant, the Dutch governor of New Amsterdam, signed the articles of surrender delivering the colony into the hands of Colonel Nichols, the English commander. Several days previously the island had capitulated, but Stuyvesant was reluctant to admit defeat. The British immediately changed the name of the city to New York in honor of the duke of York, who was then at the head of the British Army.

Selfishness.
 Think about yourself; about what you want, what you like, what respect people ought to pay to you, what people think of you; and then to you nothing will be pure.—Charles Kingsley.
 First Battle Armor.
 Bambeson was the armor used by the ancient Egyptians. It was composed of layers of cloth and tow, or a similar material quilted on canvas or leather.

Conveys Idea of Meanness.
 Thrifty habits of the rural New England deacon have resulted in the pervasion of the noun and its use as a verb is well understood. To "deacon" a calf is to knock it in the head when born, hence, "deaconed" veal. To "deacon" strawberries, a custom more honored in the observance than in the breach, is to put the largest ones on top, and to "deacon" land is to extend one's fence to include a portion of the highway.

True Friendship.
 Two are friends who have learned to interpret aright the silence that fall between them. They know that the understanding is complete and that words are unnecessary to an explanation. It is a relief when one may without reservation trust and be trusted, though nothing is said. We might, indeed, learn from our humble dependent the dog a valuable lesson of implicit faith that does not need the medium of writing or of speech.

Appeal That All Understand.
 The variety of languages is one of the marvels and mysteries, yet beyond the grammar and the etymology there is forever a fundamental fact—that men are brothers in the blood, bound to help and to serve one another in time of need. Hunger, thirst, sickness and weakness speak for themselves. We can tell when our brother has need of our aid, though his appeal is mute, or inarticulate, or in an outlandish tongue.—Exchange.

YOU GET STRONG, if you're a tired-out or "run-down" woman, with Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. For these two things—to build up women's strength, and for women's ailments—this is a tried and true vegetable tonic.
 The "Prescription" regulates the natural functions, and is perfectly harmless in any condition of a woman's system. It brings refreshing sleep, and restores health and vigor.
 Send 10c to Dr. Pierce's, Buffalo, N. Y., for trial package.

SCOUT WIRELESS SYSTEM

The district communication superintendents of the United States navy, who are in charge of the navy wireless stations, have for several months broadcasted messages for the Boy Scouts of America, and the experiment has been so productive of results that they have indicated their willingness to co-operate in a system which will enable the scout headquarters to reach every scout in the country on short notice when they are needed for public service.
 To give wireless amateurs a chance to practice NAH, the New York station and others sent out news for boy scouts and other boys every day at slow speed.

All that is necessary in order to take advantage of the plan is to form a connection with the nearest scout headquarters that has a wireless receiving station and secure the weather reports, final in athletic events, and other news. All boy scout headquarters are expected to get their information either by wireless direct or through some other scout organization that has a radio station. As there are 250,000 amateur radio stations in the United States it is not difficult even for a single troop to connect with the navy wireless service and pass information along for the benefit of the public. A scout organization which fails to do its part in this big plan is decidedly behind the times.

The Seaside Radio Commodore, 200 Fifth avenue, sends free of charge information sheets for wireless amateurs who want copies of the confidential code in which some of the messages are sent out. The public needs only to insist, gently but firmly, that the scouts shall keep them informed, and help the scouts in such ways as they can.

Freshen a Heavy Skin
 With the antiseptic, fascinating Cuticura Talcum Powder, an exquisitely scented convenient, economical face, skin, baby and dusting powder and perfume. Renders other perfumes superfluous. One of the Cuticura Toilet Trio (Soap, Ointment, Talcum).—Adv.

Machine Worth Having.
 "The typewriter will never be perfect," says the Syracuse Herald, "until it can go ahead and write something without somebody telling it what to say." Which reminds us of what Kipling in his livelier days wrote as a testimonial for a certain machine. "I just start the typewriter off with a line," he said; "then I go out for a walk, and when I return there is the poem all written."—Boston Transcript.

Idleness.
 I am not the only one that condemns the idle; for once when I was going to give our minister a pretty long list of the sins of one of our people that he was asking after, I began with "He's dreadfully lazy." "That's enough," said the old gentleman, "all sorts of sins are in that one."—C. H. Spurgeon.

Paradox of Rail Wear.
 In a single track line railroad the wear on the rails is seldom greater, and is frequently less than in a double-track line, says the Scientific American, an apparent paradox which is probably explained by the reversal of direction of traffic, which tends to neutralize coldrolling actions in the surface of the rail-head.

Continental Calligraphy.
 The English are said to produce the best handwriting of all nations; the Americans come next; the French write badly, especially the ladies; the Italians very poorly; the Spaniards scarcely legibly. The two last named nations continue to use many contracted letters.
