SOCIETY EVENTS OF THE WEEK

Mrs. A. W. Purdy delightfully entertained a company of ladies on Thursday and Saturday afternoons of last week, honoring her daughter, Mrs. Julian Morfitt of Astoria who has been an over holiday guest at the Purdy home. Auction bridge was played at four tables on both occasions and delicious refreshments served at the close of the afternoon.

Mrs. and Mrs. A. C. Voelker were hosts at a seven o'clock dinner party given at their home last Friday evening. The dining table was tastefully arranged, covers being laid for twelve guests. The impromptu response to a place card program called forth much merriment. The evening was spent at music and cards.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Otto G. Sapper witnessed a jolly birthday dinner party Sunday noon in honor of Mr. George Briggs. Miss Marion Briggs, Mr. Sapper and little daughter Helen, whose birthdays occur within a week. A big birthday cake filled to its sugary brim with lighted candles was the crowning feature of the feast. The birthdays ranged all the way from one year to Mr. Briggs' unannounced numerals.

The afternoon Study Club held its first meeting for the new year at the home of Mrs. George Patterson on Tuesday afternoon. Several interesting responses were given in answer to roll call. Mrs. Putnam reading a timely article on "The New Era in Mexico." Mrs. Gaither read a splendid paper entitled, "What the Pilgrim Fathers Sought," commemorating the Ter-Centenary of the landing of the pilgrims which has been duly celebrated throughout the United States during the past month. The special feature of the program was an interesting and instructive address given by Miss Edith Graves, the primary teacher in our local school, on her experiences as a missionary in China. A dainty luncheon was served by the hostess after the program to eighteen members. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Gaither at which time Mr. Klemme's lectures will be reviewed by Mrs. Putnam and Mrs. Schilling.

One of the interesting functions of the week was a seven o'clock luncheon given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Watson on Tuesday evening with Mr. and Mrs. George Briggs as joint hosts. A bounteous two course luncheon was served at six tables and cards furnished the entertainment for the rest of the evening.
