Power in Solitude.
 Solitude is the soil of solemn thoughts and great deeds. Moses tends sheep on the lonely heaths for years before he beards the Burning Bush. He climbs Sinai alone to write the tables of the law. Cromwell follows the plow as a Huntingdon farmer until he is forty. Then he steers the Puritan revolution which begot these United States.—Boston Herald.

Custom of Wearing Shoes.
 The sandal, the earliest and simplest shoe, was known by the most primitive races and was certainly worn by the ancient Egyptians. The Hittites wore shoes, often with gaiters above to protect the ankle and calf of the leg.
Mountain Scenery.
 One of the principal charms of mountain scenery is its solitude.—Ruskin.

The Vatican.
 The Vatican, the palace of the pope in Rome and one of the largest in the world, contains a valuable collection of works of art, and is one of the chief attractions of the city. It is a storehouse of literary treasures and documents of interest bearing on the history of the Middle Ages.

Education.
 Education is the leading of human souls to what is best and making what is best out of them, and these two objects are always attainable together and by the same means. The training which makes men happiest in themselves also makes them most serviceable to others.—Ruskin.

The Bushel as a Weight.
 A bushel is now regarded as a definite weight rather than a measure of cubic contents. Various products, however, have different weights to the bushel. Wheat, according to the bureau of crop estimates, weighs 60 pounds to the bushel.

Watch Expenditures.
 If he who is always hard up will keep a record of his expenditures he may find that he is more lacking in sense than in dollars.

Flavor for Wines.
 Greeks and Romans flavor their wines by steeping the leaves of violets and roses in the liquor until it acquires the odor.

Sandpapering Paint.
 In removing old paint dampen the sandpaper with benzine and the work can be accomplished in half the time.

Some people can't even build castles in the air without adding wings to them.—Glosson Magazine.

The lazier a man is the more he is going to do tomorrow.—Boston Transcript.

POULTRY

FENCES USED FOR CHICKENS
 Cost of Equipment, Labor and Maintenance is Increased Where Yards Are Divided.

Fences dividing the land used for poultry into yards increase the cost of equipment, labor and maintenance. There should be as few fences as possible, as land can be cultivated and kept sweet more easily if not fenced. The value, too, of fresh, sweet land for poultry can hardly be overestimated. A grass sward can be maintained on good soil by allowing 200 to 250 square feet of land per bird (217 or 174 birds to the acre), while more space is necessary on poor or light land. A larger number of fowls are usually kept to the acre where double yards are used, and the land is frequently cultivated.

Plymouth Rocks and the heavy meat birds in small yards require fences five to six feet high, while a fence six to seven feet high is necessary for Leghorns, say poultry specialists of the United States Department of Agriculture. The upper two feet of the fence for the latter may be inclined inward at an angle of 30 degrees, or a strand or two of barbed wire may be used on top of the regular wire to help keep them confined, while it is sometimes necessary to clip the flight feathers of one wing of those birds that persist in getting out. It is not advisable to use a board or strip along the top of the fence, as hens will often fly over one so constructed.

Posts may be set or driven into the ground. They should be set eight to ten feet apart for common poultry netting, or 16 to 20 feet for woven wire. Corner posts should be about eight inches in diameter and be set four feet in the ground, while intervening posts may be four or five inches in diameter and set three feet in the ground. Much

On retiring gently rub spots of dandruff and itching with Cuticura Ointment. Next morning shampoo with Cuticura Soap and hot water. Make them your every-day toilet preparations and have a clear skin and soft, white hands.—Adv.

Tobacco Pipe Worth $500,000
 What is said to be the most expensive and valuable pipe in the world is owned by the shah of Persia. It is the official pipe of that country and is smoked only on special state occasions. It is so bedecked with rubies and diamonds its value is said to be over $500,000.—Ohio State Journal.

An Electric Washer, Maybe.
 As a rule when your wife has something she wants to talk to you about she wants to talk to you about something she doesn't have.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

That Time May Come.
 A great stride will be made toward the highest conservation of human energy when we learn that it is easier and better to keep folks well than to cure them when they're sick.

Stop That "Croaking."
 A "frog in the throat" soon quits "croaking" when the patient partakes of the palatable and soothing home remedy of equal portions of honey and lemon juice. It has been found invaluable in relieving acute hoarseness and irritation of the throat and larynx.

As we grow more sensible, we refuse drug cathartics and take instead Nature's herb cure, Garfield Tea.—Adv.

"Spare" in Readiness.
 A little girl was on a ferry boat with her mother. Evidently being the first time she was on a boat, she looked around and took everything in. Her mother questioned her as to how she liked the boat, upon which she replied: "I think it very nice, and I am glad they carry a 'spare,'" pointing to a life buoy.

A plant which is somewhat common in Brazil shows a remarkable luminosity which can be seen for a distance of a mile. Seated near one of these plants after nightfall it is possible to read fine print and to perform other operations which require a light.

Garfield Tea, taken regularly, will correct both liver and kidney disorders.—Adv.

"Moleosophy," is the delineation of character and reading of the past and future by means of moles upon the human face and body. It is an even more ancient occult science than that of palmistry.

A WOMAN'S BURDENS
 are lightened when she turns to the right medicine. If her existence is made gloomy by weaknesses and painful disorders, she will find relief from her troubles in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. If she's overworked, nervous, or "run-down," she finds new life and strength. It's an invigorating tonic and nerve for "woman's complaints" and weaknesses, and for young girls just entering womanhood.

Safeguarding the Children.
 Frederick Burlingham, American explorer, just returned from central Borneo, tells of methods employed by natives to protect young children from wild boar, boa constrictors, and poisonous insects. The children are swathed in garments and swung on rattan vines suspended between trees. Crocodiles take a large toll of children in Borneo, says the explorer, despite precautions taken.

Take care of your health, and wealth will take care of you. Garfield Tea promotes health.—Adv.

"Civic Crown."
 This was merely a wreath of oak leaves with pendant acorns and was one of the most highly valued honors a Roman could attain. It was given for saving the life of a citizen in battle, at the same time killing the opponent and maintaining the ground upon which the fight took place. One to whom it was given had a right to wear it always.
