Harold Lloyd Comedy will be seen as an added attraction.

CHILD SPECIALIST SECURED FOR O. A. C. FARMERS WEEK

Mrs. Max West, late of the children's bureau, has been secured for the Farmer's week and Home-seekers conference at O. A. C., June 13 to 18. Mrs. West is a well-known authority on child welfare and is a speaker and writer of note on that subject.

Left a widow in 1909, with a family of five children—the oldest a girl of 13 and the youngest a baby of a few months—Mrs. West entered the government service at once, and in 1912 was appointed to the staff of the children's bureau where she worked until 1919, when she resigned to go to the west to be with her aged mother. The family is now living in Berkeley.

"Parental Care," "Infant Care," "Child Care-Pre-school Child," and "Child Care-School Child," comprise a series of bulletins which have been written by Mrs. West and distributed by the children's bureau of the United States department of labor. The circulation of these bulletins is now well into three millions.

A newspaper syndicate has recently enlisted the services of Mrs. West to write daily articles for mothers and answer their questions concerning child welfare. This busy woman is engaged to give the course in child welfare at the summer session of the University of California. O. A. C. says it is very fortunate to have secured her for Farmer's Week.

Baptist Orchestra Organized

A fine big crowd of young people gathered at the Baptist church Wednesday evening for the organization of an orchestra and a young people's choir. The early part of the evening was spent in playing games, after which the business of the evening was taken up. It was arranged to have rehearsals every week under their competent leader. The first one being Tuesday, May 31st, at 7:30 p. m. in the church. Those not present at the organization are asked to be present at the first rehearsal. It is planned to have the orchestra and young people's choir lead the music at the Sunday evening services. After the business meeting those present were served with ice cream and cake and after gathering around the piano for an informal sing, departed for their homes feeling very enthusiastic over the new organization.

Advertising a Sale!

YOU don't leave your rig in the middle of the road and go to a fence-post to read a sale bill do you? Then don't expect the other fellow to do it.

Put an ad in this paper, then, regardless of the weather, the fellow you want to reach reads your announcements while seated at his fireside.

If he is a prospective buyer you'll have him at your sale. One extra buyer often pays the entire expense of the ad, and it's a poor ad that won't pull that buyer.

An ad in this paper reaches the people you are after. Bills may be a necessity, but the ad is the thing that does the business.

Don't think of having a special sale without using advertising space in this paper.
