The real summer weather has arrived and first cutting of hay over portions of this district is on in earnest. This is some earlier than last season and running much heavier, averaging over a ton and half to the cutting and much of it going over two tons to the acre. This will make it a cinch on four good cuttings and some will probably make a fifth this season.

Rieks, Live stock exhibits, H. W. Grim, fruit and vegetables and other farm products. Chas. Powell will handle the subscription list to finance the fair. The women folks especially have already taken active hold of their work and promise us the fair will be a complete success. Light refreshments were served after the business meeting. Everybody had a good time besides having accomplished the preliminary arrangements in connection with the coming fair.

A unique traveling outfit arrived Sunday evening and has spent the week with us. The party of four consist of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Frome and boy and their friend Mr. McKinzie. Their "House" on wheels, hauled behind a large touring car came through on its way to Canada from Mexico so far without a hitch. The trailer or "House" was built out started on the trip about 25 miles from the Mexican line in a town called Temecula, a small Mexican town. They came through California over the Sierras-Shasta and Siskiyou, and experienced no trouble coming over these mountains although their house on wheels consists of a bedroom, 2 beds, when folded up make a good sized sitting room and when folded again consist of a dining room, kitchen all complete for cooking and eating. Ice box, gas and electric lighted, gas stove, ect. Mr. Frome says the roads in California are fine and we should put on more men and use up the money appropriated for roads. Speaking to the writer, he says we should put on 100 men where there is only one now, that we have some very bad spots. Oregon should be calling for the restless tourist like California in 1922. They to a man, like Oregon best, but hurry the completion of your roads. We are behind yet.

Mr. Frome has practiced dentistry in Portland for 12 years and put in a number of winters at Fossil, Oregon and is acquainted with some of our people. Irrigon looked good to Mr. and Mrs. Frome and so they decided to spend the week and perhaps longer with us. They are camped in the shade on eighth street.

BROWN AND GOLD LEAVES

Umatilla High School
(By Lotis Davis)

The girls of the cooking club held a successful cooked food sale last Saturday. Enough money was cleared to send two delegates to the O. A. C. summer school for a two week's course. Fern Rennick and Clara Park were chosen to represent the club.

Since the eighth grade exams are over, the class has only two subjects daily, arithmetic and language.

Miss Dorothy Flegel, science teacher of Pendleton high school motored down Sunday, with friends, and spent the day with her college friend, Miss Irving.

The sophomore English class held a debate Tuesday on the question, Resolved: That the United States should own the island of Yap. The negative side was victorious.

The high school held a marshmallow and Weiner roast near the Division Dam at Lone Lake last Friday night. Each high school student invited one guest. A pleasant evening was spent at games and story telling. Weiners and marshmallows were roasted and coffee boiled over an open fire. Everyone had a good time including the faculty chaperons.

SPRAY SPREADER STUFF
MAY SOON BE AVAILABLE

New Material to Increase Economy and Effectiveness of Spray is Ready For Fall Use

The spray spreader—caseinate and hydrated lime—recently developed by the O. A. C. Experiment station, is expected to be available to grower for use this fall.

The new spreader is designed to increase the wetting and covering power of insecticide spray solutions and to make them go farther. I will thus make the solutions more effective and reduce the cost of application.

Tests conducted by the station with hordes of caterpillars showed that arsenate of lead dosage as weak as 1 pound to 400 gallons of water was fatal to the larva that was un lucky enough to eat it. The strength in usual field practice is 8 times this amount—2 pounds to 100 gallons.

It was found that the heavy application for supplying a much lighter dose in the worm diet was required for three principal reasons, physical defects of the spray solution, of the spray materials and of application. Spreaders have to do only with the solution.

Conclusions on the efficacy of the spray are commonly drawn by the grower from the occasional blotches he finds on leaf and fruit. The ideal application is one in which all surfaces are coated with a smooth, even and inconspicuous film.

Experiments over years of close study and tests have shown that of the known materials for spray calcium arsenate and lead arsenate are the best, and that caseinate and hydrated lime are the best materials to make them spread thinly and evenly over leaf and fruit.

A special preparation of these spreaders has been made up by commercial plants. It can readily be mixed in the tank, at the rate of 12 ounces to 200 gallons.

Three notable lectures appear on the Chautauqua program this season. Pres. James A. Burns, "Burns of the Mountains," one of the most interesting men on the American platform, is scheduled for the second night. Mrs. Taylor Z. Marshall, a prominent Eastern lecturer, brings a highly inspirational appeal in "Levers that Move the World." Carveth Wells, English explorer, comes with an illustrated lecture of intense interest on the Malay Peninsula.

ENTERTAINMENT

An entertainment event of cardinal importance is scheduled for the third night in a big play production presented by The Keighley New York Players with an all-professional cast. Another entertainment feature of note rests in the coming of Richard P. Campbell, known as "The Western James Whitcomb Riley."
