ROUND-UP

PENDLETON, OREGON

SEPTEMBER, 22, 23, 24, 1921

In the whole World there is no contest so intensely exciting, and with more thrilling and spectacular climaxes, than the riding of "outlaw" bronchos by cowboys and cowgirls.

Those contests, also the wild horse races, wild steer roping and bulldogging, Indian dances and pow wows are all that remain of the young, wild, vigorous, yet loving West.

FAMOUS PEOPLE WILL BE PRESENT AT ROUND-UP

Pendleton, Ore., Aug. 18—September 7 is the date set for the opening of the seat sale for the 1921 Round-Up, to be staged in Pendleton September 22, 23 and 24. Already demands are pouring in to the Round Up headquarters and the number of advance orders is unprecedented in the history of the big show. A section in the grandstand and three boxes have been ordered by the Oregon Journal for the 300 guests who as members of the annual "Journal Special," will visit the Round-Up.

Cowboys Coming
 Contracts have been closed by the Round-Up Association with Charles Irwin, who will be here with 20 cowboys and cowgirls and a string of fast horses. The famous Parsons string of race horses and those owned by Ed McCarty will be here also. Yak and Kitty Canutt, Frank McCarroll, Prairie Rose and John Judd—these and other celebrities of track and arena will compete in the events for cash prizes and trophies which make up the greatest prize list ever offered. Resplendent in hand-colored russet leather and trimmings of silver and gold, the $500 saddle is awaiting the champion of the bucking contests, while the $100 Police Gazette Belt with its solid gold engraved buckle will go to the champion all-round cowboy.

Famous People to be Present
 An array of nationally known persons will sit in the grandstand at the twelfth annual show. Among those expected are A. Phimister Proctor, sculptor who recently completed an equestrian statue of Roosevelt which is to be presented to the city of Portland by Dr. Waldo Coe; Verne H. Porter, editor of the Cosmopolitan; Mary Roberta Rinehart, well known author, and Bebe Daniels, popular screen favorite. The Round-Up is purely a community affair, conducted on a non-profit basis by the Round-Up association which is made up of prominent Pendleton citizens, and as such it attracts thousands of visitors.

An additional attraction this year which will be of interest to wheatmen of the northwest is the Northwest Grain and Hay Show to be held in Pendleton during Round-Up week. The show is open to the public and a $1500 premium list, the greatest ever offered for such products in the northwest, is attracting the attention of wheatgrowers.

 H. L. Rudy, who is associated with Elder Watson in the tent services here returned from a visit at Boardman Tuesday. He will conduct the association there for the time being.

CHARLES RAY IN "PARIS GREEN" IS COMING HERE
 Picture Will be at Pounds Friday and at the Play House Saturday

Charles Ray is one young man who hasn't come to a bad end as the result of not following his father's advice. Even as a youngster Charlie wanted to be an actor. Matters came to such a crisis that the day following Charles' graduation from high school, Papa Ray took him to one side and spoke as follows:
 "I want to see you make your way in the world. Very few actors ever do that. They are out of work most of the time. When they do find work they sleep in cheap hotels and board houses and borrow money to pay their board bills and wear celluloid collars to save laundry bills in New York they stand on the curb and chew toothpicks and flirt with the ladies who pass by. But I'll tell you what I'll do with you Charlie. You go to college and I'll pay the bills. Then if at the end of four years if you still want to be an actor, I'll say, 'Go ahead.'"

Charles agreed. His college career over, he came home and showed his dad his diploma.
 "Now I'm ready to go on the stage," said the graduate.
 The elder Ray is a man of his word. Charles made his debut in a small part at Hooley's Theatre, Chicago. One night, without his son being aware of it, Mr. Ray came to town and watched Charles from a seat in the balcony. At the end of the show, he went "back stage" and shook hands with the boy.
 "You were right, son," he said. "You'll be a star some day."

And so he is. His latest film vehicle is "Paris Green," which is coming next Friday and Saturday.
 George Corse and W. A. Leathers were in Pendleton Saturday.
