Hermiston Locals

R. Alexander of Pendleton was in town Tuesday and Wednesday visiting his daughter Mrs. E. P. Dodd and attending a meeting of the board of directors of the First National bank. Mr. Alexander has lived in this county 43 years and remembers Hermiston before it was Hermiston. He thinks the project will make great progress in the next few years.

J. A. Reeves, who has returned from his hunting trip, brought in a buck.

F. A. Phelps, Merrill Potter, Carl Voyer and Merle Phelps returned Tuesday from their hunting trip to Ukiah. Merrill bagged a deer.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Henderson were in Walla Walla Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Peck who were here last week left Friday for Payette before returning to their home at Culver. While here they visited former Culver friends, Youngs, Kingsleys, Pierces, Wilsons and others they knew there.

Mrs. J. K. Shotwell and daughter Miss Emily Shotwell returned from Portland Sunday. Miss Emily will leave here next Wednesday to take up her junior year's work at Whitman.

Miss Laura Phipps will leave for Walla Walla some time next week to enter Whitman college.

Monday from 9:30 on there will be a millinery class at the home of Mrs. J. H. Reid. All ladies are invited. Mrs. Van Deusen will have charge.

All who grew yellow roses this year should bring specimens for exhibit at the community club reception for the women of the project next Tuesday afternoon at the library.

Mrs. W. H. Howard of Umatilla, and Mrs. D. H. Cook and Mrs. G. H. Montgomery have been on the sick list the past week. All are reported doing well.

C. E. Baker is furnishing the hay which the Oregon Co-operative Hay Growers will send to Pendleton to put into the building of the north west hay and grain show to be held during Round-Up week. The show building will be built of baled hay. Another car of Mr. Baker's hay will be sent to the Atlantic seaboard.

E. P. Illsley and son Dr. W. W. Illsley left for Portland Tuesday night. They expect to return in about two days.

Sterling Mattoon has shipped 50 odd head of horses to his farm near here from the eastern Oregon stock ranch at Lexington. Of the horses 32 are racers and 12 are thoroughbreds.

Miss Belle Richards of Seattle who has been visiting at the F. D. Callahan home during the past week returned to Seattle Monday.

An eight pound boy is a recent addition to the family of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Partlow of Boardman.

Helen Schachermeyer has diphtheria this week but at last reports is getting along nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Callahan entertained last Thursday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Guilwits who were married recently in Salem. Card honors were won by Mrs. Guilwits and Mrs. Edna Benschel.

What happened "When Dawn Came?"

The high school class of 1921 enjoyed a beefsteak fry on the butte Thursday evening. Those present were Ruby Scott, Viola Bennett, Dorothy Briggs, Jane Gunn, Laura Phipps and Albert Hedwall.

F. E. Earnheart returned last week from Pendleton to remain here. He has been employed there the past year.

Miss Esther Schroeder of Valley City, North Dakota arrived here Sunday morning for a visit with her sister Mrs. A. W. Adamson. She met Mrs. Adamson in Pendleton and the two came here together.

Rev. M. R. Gallaher who was formerly connected with the Methodist church here was in town the latter part of last week. Rev. Gallaher is now in Prineville.

P. W. Klaus and family of Salem who have been visiting at the F. P. Phipps home left Monday for their home. They were here seven years ago and were delighted with the improvements that have been made since then.

"When Dawn Came," is greater than "The Stealers."

Mrs. E. M. Hoskins who has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Waugaman became suddenly ill last week and was taken to the hospital in Pendleton where she died Saturday. Her mother Mrs. Teas and her husband E. M. Hoskins who were with her here left with the body for Sheridan, Iowa Sunday.

Miss Edith Waddell who has been working at Heppner arrived Sunday for a visit with her mother Mrs. A. J. Woodward who lives near Hermiston on the diagonal road. Miss Waddell may remain here.

For Upland Shooting

A tramp through fields and woods with a good dog—the thrill of a well-placed shot—the bright fall weather—the healthful exercise—this is the sport of early season shooting.

A Winchester shotgun with Winchester Leader or Repeater shells gives you a hard-hitting, evenly-distributed shot pattern for upland small game.

Get your new Winchester shotgun now.

Enjoy it the whole season.

Winchester Model 12—Hammerless, Repeating Shotgun—known as the "perfect repeater"—beautiful lines—the right feel and balance. Rapid, smooth working, accurate.

Be sure you have enough Winchester shells when you start out.
