Women Preent Old Maid Drama

"I WANT A MAN" IS KEYNOTE OF BOARDMAN PLAY

Old Maid's Convention is Shown on Stage; All Goes Well Till Ages Are Asked

Boardman, Oregon, Sept. 22—The ladies of the Community church staged a very popular entertainment in the school auditorium on Friday night offering "The Spinners' Convention."

The chairman of the convention was Josephine Jane Green, president of the Young Ladies' Society of Single Blessedness—Mrs. Wicklander Priscilla Abigail Hodge, secretary—Mrs. Boardman.

Calamity Jane Higgins, treasurer—Mrs. Margaret Cramer. Rebecca Rachel Sharpe, an artistic dresser—Mrs. Herlem. Tiny Short (very tall)—Mrs. Stewart.

Mary Ann Fraddler—Mrs. Dewese. Jerusha Matilda Spriggins—Mrs. Fennell.

Patience Desire Mann—Mrs. Crawford. Sophia Stuck-up—Mrs. Klitz. Juliet Long (short lady)—Ester Chaffee.

Betsy Bobbett—Mrs. Warner. Charity Long face—Mrs. Messenger.

Cleopatra Belle Brown—Mrs. Johnson. Polly Jane Pratt—Mrs. Robt. Wilson.

Violet Ann Ruggles—Mrs. Dempsey. Belinda Bluegrass, advocating dress reform—Mrs. Rands.

Frances Touchmenot, candidate for initiation—Mrs. Blayden.

Hannah Biggerstaff, candidate for initiation—Mrs. Root.

After due deliberation the convention members decided to take up their quarters at The Highway Inn because the following rules were there in force.

1. Board, fifty cents per square foot.
2. Breakfast at 8:00, dinner at 6:00, supper at 7:00.
3. Guests are requested not to speak to the dumb waiter.
4. Guests willing to get up without being called can have self-rising flour for supper.
5. If room gets too warm, open the window and see the fire escape.
6. If thirsty find the spring in the bed.
7. If you have nightmare find a halter on the bedpost.
8. Don't worry about paying your bills for this hotel is supported by its foundation.

The motto of the convention was "Maid, Man and Matrimony," and all sorts of plans, even to the petitioning of congress for assistance were discussed.

One of the most interesting reports was that of the committee on investigation of matrimonial possibilities of Boardman. Without doubt each individual had been carefully sized up as the report which follows shows:

C. H. Dillabaugh, fluctuating.
Chas. Barnes, rarely steady.
Col. Callahan, immovable.
Opal Wagner.
H. H. Crawford, cornered.
Chas. Goodwin.
W. A. Price, out of the market.
Harry Murchie, nothing doing.
Edgar Smith, in demand.
Stanley Hatch, fairly active.
Adolph Skovbo, foreign market quiet.

Geo. Mitchell, slow.
Lyle Blayden, regular.
Ben Atterberry, going to the highest bidder.

Jess Lower, very uncertain.
Al Macomber, undecided.

R. Wasmor and Frank Otto, to be had for the asking.

Vaughman Keyes, ready.

F. Emberger, willing.

Lauren Cumins, spoken for.

A. W. Cobb, in need of encouragement.

With an eye to business Prof. Makeover (S. H. Boardman) appeared before the convention with his wonderful invention the Remodelscope, guaranteed to make old maids into whatever they wished to be provided only that they tell their correct age and were not too old.

The demonstration passed along with splendid success until one insisted on taking her dog into the makeover machine. She came out rejuvenated but the dog came out weiners.

Disaster was finally spelled when "Trilby" gave her age incorrectly and the air was soon full of shoes, clothing and unmentionables, breaking up the show.

It is not possible to mention all
