Hermiston Locals

M. W. Sharrard of Willows was in town Monday.

H. T. Murehey of Boardman was a Hermiston visitor Tuesday.

E. J. Kingsley returned from Portland Sunday morning.

Hermiston and vicinity received some nice rains the fore part of the week. Chas. Webber spent the week-end in Portland returning Tuesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Pennock and Mr. A. D. Crossland were Pendleton visitors Monday.

Rev. Dow De Long of Deer Park, Wash., is here helping to shingle the roof of the new church.

W. E. Bell left Tuesday in his car for Seattle. He and Mrs. Bell will return home in a few weeks. Mrs. Bell is now in Seattle.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jacobson of Pendleton were down Sunday for a visit with Mrs. Jacobson's parents Mr. and Mrs. John Leek.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Chezik were among the Hermiston people who attended the play, "Robin Hood," in Pendleton Tuesday evening.

Repairs on the Warner and Shaar buildings are going forward rapidly and the places will be ready for occupancy again some time next week.

Mrs. Elois Roderick of Portland visited her daughter Mrs. Frank Guivits and her friend Mrs. Chas. Taylor here last week, leaving Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Waugaman are the parents of an eight pound baby girl born at St. Anthony's hospital in Pendleton Tuesday, October 18.

Fred Sharrard left Monday evening for Oregon City where he will spend the next month. After that he is undecided as to where he will locate.

Rev. H. F. Pemberton of The Dalles, district superintendent, will be here Friday evening. The church officials will be entertained at the Methodist parsonage.

Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Phipps expect to make a trip to Walla Walla Friday. While there they will visit their daughter Miss Laura who is attending Whitman college.

The Columbia neighborhood club will meet next Wednesday at 2:00 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Howard Reid. All members are asked to take notice and be present.

The Rebekah lodge will give its program Friday evening. A good entertainment with refreshments is promised. All Rebekahs, Odd Fellows and their families are invited.

The dedication of the new Methodist church, scheduled for this coming Sunday, has been postponed on account of failure of some of the material to arrive. Announcement will be made later.

C. C. Mason has just received literature on the Pacific international livestock exposition which contains a neat picture of last year's grand champion sow of which he was the owner.

Miss Lucile Redmond of Redmond, Oregon, has arrived here and taken up her duties as a teacher in the high school. The employing of a sixth teacher was made necessary on account of the increased enrollment.

Mrs. Arnold Gralapp and baby and Mrs. Grant Wilson, Mr. Gralapp's mother arrived here last week. Mrs. Wilson will stay perhaps 10 days. Mr. Gralapp is an instructor in the high school here and coaches the athletic teams.

Dr. F. V. Prime returned Tuesday night from Baker where he attended the convention of the eastern Oregon dental society. Dr. Prime did not come away without honors for he was chosen secretary of the association for the coming year.

The Hermiston Fruit Growers are busy these days. They have already shipped 11 cars of apples and have three more car loads in the packing room. About 18,000 more cases are expected to come in from the orchards. The car just loaded will go to Christiansa, Norway.

Rev. J. E. Faucett, pastor of the Stanfield community church has tendered his resignation, giving as his reason the small attendance and suggesting that some other man might have more success. Indications are that the church supporters will oppose his leaving. Rev. Faucett has a ranch and has on this account been able to give his services to the church at a considerably cheaper figure than another pastor would be able to do.

Agnew's Cows Makes High Test
Forestdale Chimes, A. W. Agnew's prize winning Jersey bettered her mark at the dairy and hog show when she made a test of 7.04 in a private two day test at home under natural conditions. This mark is higher than the one she made when she captured the honors at the show.

ANNOUNCEMENT
I am changing my office hours to 2:00 to 5:00 P. M. and 7:30 to 9:00 P. M. These hours will be kept with strict regularity except when called out in emergency cases. Prompt attention will be given calls both day and night. Dr. R. G. Gale. 5-2tc.

To Gain a Good Reputation

The way to gain a good reputation is to endeavor to be what you appear. That is precisely the manner in which Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has gained its reputation as a cure for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough. Every bottle that has ever been put out by the manufacturer has been fully up to the high standard of excellence claimed for it. People have found that it can be depended upon for the relief and cure of these ailments and that it is pleasant and safe to take.

How Better Than Pills?

The question has been asked—In what way are Chamberlain's Tablets superior to the ordinary cathartic and liver pills?—Our answer is, they are easier and more pleasant to take and their effect is so gentle that one hardly realizes that it is produced by a medicine. Then, they not only move the bowels but improve the appetite and strengthen the digestion.

I have just bought the Phelps Cash Grocery and will carry a full line of vegetables, meats and groceries. A delivery service started October 1st, at which time our line of meats were ready. We will continue the Royal Bakery goods.
