

The High School Mirror

Vol. 2 Devoted to the Interest and Development of the Hermiston Schools No. 13

A call for candidates for the debating team was issued Monday by Miss Redmond. The upper classmen have been doing debate work on different subjects for some time, and now work will begin in earnest on the question for high school debate this year: Resolved; that the U. S. should maintain a navy equal in size and strength to that of any other nation. This is a question which is much in the lime light at the present time, and the high school debaters are preparing to put Daniel Webster to shame. A large number of students turned out, and the best team ever put out by Hermiston high school is to be expected.

The football season is over now, so a meeting of all those who had played during the season was held Tuesday, for the purpose of electing a captain. This year's captain, Harold Waterman, will graduate in June. Ernest Adleman who played a great game at fullback this year was elected captain to take his place.

The high school orchestra played at the community get-together Tuesday, and was highly complimented for its splendid work. The orchestra is making fine progress under the direction of Mr. Voelker, and is larger than ever this year.

Miss Long and Mr. Gralapp have announced that the girls' and boys' basketball practice will start Thursday and Friday respectively. As we have regular coaches this year great things are expected of our teams.

Sale of Red Cross Christmas seals will begin soon. As usual this work will be undertaken by the school. The high school will choose up sides, and the side selling the greatest number will enjoy a party at the expense of the losing side. When you are approached by students selling stamps, buy all you can, as the funds thus procured go for a good cause.

A number of high school students had a most interesting time at a party given by Mable Brown Saturday evening.

Because of the fact that the school building affords no place for basketball, the school board of Union High School, District No. 4 has decided to pay the rent for the auditorium during the basketball season.

Another of the interesting parties given recently was the one given by Pauline Morris on Thanksgiving.

The high school has taken steps to prevent the accumulation of waste paper downtown by putting receptacles for the papers on various corners.

A coating party was held Monday evening at the home of Zona Bensch. A number of high school students were in attendance.

Dan—"I sleep with my dog every night."
Kidders—"That's very unhealthy."
Dan—"I know, but he's used to it."

Three new pupils have entered the fifth grade.

TO THE PATRONS OF THE HERMISTON POSTOFFICE

Dear Friends:—
As Christmas is almost here and the mails are always crowded at this time of the year, we will greatly appreciate it if you will kindly arrange to mail your Christmas packages early.

If you will have them plainly addressed, with your own address in the upper left hand corner, well wrapped and securely tied it will greatly aid us in handling the Christmas mails.

All parcels should be addressed plainly with pen and ink and parcels containing fragile articles should be labeled PERISHABLE, and all valuable parcels should be insured.

There are 54,332 post offices in the United States handling 8,000,000 packages every day, and this number is greatly increased during the Christmas rush, and unless you mail your packages early they are liable to be delayed and may not reach their destination in time to be delivered by Christmas day.

For the accommodation of the public the window will be kept open until 6 o'clock p. m. and the lobby until 8:30 p. m. until December 26. The office will also be kept open on Christmas day until 12 m. for the delivery of packages that arrive on that day.

A table will be placed in the lobby of the office for your use in wrapping your parcels, should you desire to use it.

Sincerely yours,
C. M. Skinner, Postmaster.

Farm Reminders

New Clover Recommended

The Ladino clover, a giant growing type of white little Dutch clover, has been made satisfactory growth in cooperative forage trials at the experimental station. It is perennial in habit and grows much more rankly than the ordinary white clover, making it a useful plant for permanent pastures where there is a good supply of moisture. It is not rank growing enough to justify its culture for hay but is a good pasture crop and in some irrigated sections it may be successfully produced for such purposes.—O. A. C. Experiment station.

Advertising pure bred livestock is effective during the winter months when farmers are giving more attention to local and trade papers. It is just as important to provide for the marketing of pure bred breeding stock as for the raising of them.—O. A. C. Experiment station.
