

The High School Mirror

Vol. 2 Devoted to the Interest and Development of the Hermiston Schools No. 15

The staff of the Mirror have been up to their necks in work at play practices, so the Mirror this week may not be up to the usual high (?) quality.

The high school decided Wednesday morning to put on "King Lear" the Shakespearean drama which has been put into motion pictures. This will be given Friday, Dec. 23. Through the University of Oregon it can be obtained at a very reasonable expense. It was planned to put on "Robin Hood" but that film was already booked.

Mr. Voelker—"Why do most boys prefer seats in the back of the room?" Peg Neary—"I know. Because men are naturally backward."

Mr. Gralapp (angrily) "If you wish to sleep Mr. Gordon, you may leave the room."

Matthew (waking suddenly) "Err—that's alright. You're not bothering me."

"The Time of His Life." It was and is will be Friday night. The members of the cast have had everything from colds to appendicitis, but it was worth it. James Hall, who was to play the part of Officer Hogan has been ill for some time and Gwyn Huches has been chosen for his part.

Don't forget that the juniors will sell candy at the senior play, Friday, December 16.

Just to show their co-operation the high school is holding a pep meeting on Thursday noon, to advertise the play Friday night. Although "The Time of His Life" is being put on by the senior class, the entire school is backing it.

The high school moving picture machine was brought into use last Monday as a feature of National Safety Week, showing two sets of slides sent out by the University of Oregon. These were especially selected for their educational features and were shown in connection with the movement observed all over the United States.

Following is the year's basketball schedule:

- January 13 Pendleton here.
  - January 20 Athena here.
  - January 27 At Stanfield.
  - February 3 At Pendleton.
  - February 10 Pilot Rock here.
  - February 18 At Athena.
  - February 24 Stanfield here.
  - March 4 At Pilot Rock.
- Schedule for girls:
- January 13 Pendleton here.
  - January 27 At Stanfield.
  - February 3 At Pendleton.

February 10 Pilot Rock here.
February 18 At Athena.
February 24 Stanfield here.
March 4 At Pilot Rock.

Last Monday another picture on Africa was shown to the high school and upper grades. These pictures are rapidly becoming an education feature which portray geographical facts better than text books.

The junior class met at the home of Phyllis Dyer Thursday night to make candy to sell at the senior play Friday night. It was a mixture of business and pleasure.

Another of the enjoyable high school parties was held last Friday night. The features of this party were two basket ball games between boys' and girls' teams.

Two girls' teams were chosen by Miss Long, the coach and the whites hoed out the blues. The other game was between the high school first boys team and the freshmen boys. The varsity finally managed to swamp the freshmen, but they had to fight to do it. The freshmen though not having as much experience and although being much lighter put up a good game. The affair was then turned into a regular party and everyone had a fine time.

Baptist Church Notices

R. V. Ashmun, minister. Residence first house east of library. Phone 32. The junior B. Y. P. U. at 11 o'clock on Xmas Sunday we are to start the Nursery for the children under six years. Kindergarten supplies are ordered and the work will be in complete hands.

The senior B. Y. P. U. Rally last week was a real spur. The attendance was good. The social committee met at the pastors home on Wednesday of this week to perfect plans for the social for Tuesday evening, Dec. 27. The social is to be a basket social and will be held in the basement. A decorating committee will decorate the basement with the greens left from Xmas trees. This promises to be the biggest affair of 1921 so far as the seniors are concerned. The young people of the community are cordially invited.

A New Year's turkey, donated by the City Meat Market will be given as 1st prize to the one whose box brings the most money. A goose and chicken will be given as second and third prizes by the Challis Market. The proceeds of the social is to go to the basement fund of the senior B. Y. P. U.

A. L. Luce, an old resident here and now of Carthage, Missouri, was a visitor here last week and left Sunday for the east. He also lived in Jefferson county and is well known to several here who came from that country.

Autographic Brownies

FRANKLY we consider the Autographic Brownie one of the "best buys" that our photographic department has to offer—and that is a real tribute. Any one, however, can see value plus, price considered in an efficient picture-maker fitted with carefully tested lens and shutter that folds like a Kodak, and like a Kodak has the autographic feature.
