CALDWELL FAMILY ENJOYS

REUNION NEW YEARS' DAY
Irrigon is Scene of Get-together at C. W. Caldwell Home; 34 Present at Dinner

A most enjoyable affair was that of the family reunion held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Caldwell on New Year's day.
Thirty-four members of the family gathered about a bounteous table spread with all sorts of New Year's goodies. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. C. Clifford Caldwell, Mr. and Mrs. Cyde Caldwell and family, Mrs. Jessie Smith and children and Walter Caldwell, all of Umatilla; Mrs. Lulu Campbell and daughter, Lenora, of Eugene, Mrs. Pearl Potts of Portland, Messrs Geo. and Fred Caldwell and Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Caldwell of this city.
Jim Leeper of Pendleton for many years a friend of the family and J. S. Hatfield of Umatilla were also present.
Music was furnished in the afternoon by Mrs. Potts and Clyde and Clifford Caldwell. A number of very appropriate song selections were rendered by all.

Bell Ringing Quartet Wins With Sweet-Toned Chimes and Melodious Song

These Four Gifted Lads Ring and Sing Their Way Into Hearts of Hearers—Carry Seventy-five Swiss Handbells.

Here they are—four lively young Americans—the members of the Bell Ringing Male Quartet. And they are in action, too—just as they will be seen here in the near future. These young musicians are clever vocalists, also, and they sing and ring—and ring and sing—to your heart's content. They offer a program of brilliancy and snap and theirs is one of the finest novelty entertainments ever presented. Their traveling equipment consists of four well-oiled sets of vocal cords and some seventy-five sweet-toned handbells. Everywhere they have been a veritable sensation during their present tour.

Scents in Wood.
With the woods of the world to choose from, one can easily arrange a whole scale of scents from the sweetest and most delicate of perfumes at one extreme, to rank and overpowerful odors at the other, says the American Forestry Magazine. The stores of the perfumer's shop will not yield a greater variety than one can find in woods.
