BUSINESS MEN CLEAN STREETS THIS WEEK

Decided improvement was added to the appearance of Main street this week when the business men with hoes and rakes cleaned up the accumulated papers and weeds along the street and around the buildings. Everyone agrees that it looks much better and will also look more attractive and pleasing to the many tourists and travelers who pass through here.

The commercial club decided recently to have the hitching posts which are near Kingsley's store removed as soon as possible. This will no doubt be of some inconvience to our farmers, but they will agree as to the much better appearance this street will give with out these posts.
