HIGH SCHOOL MIRROR

Everyone is looking forward to the football game to be held on Sept. 30. This is to be with Pendleton's first team on the Pendleton field and promises to be one of the most exciting events of the season.

The high school student body wishes to express its appreciation to the town base ball team and Mr. Hitt for the very welcome donation of the base ball suits to the high school.

The tug-of-war, held last Friday, was an event not soon to be forgotten (especially by the Freshies and Sophs). The sophomore class was victorious in the pull by a very small margin and much credit is due both classes for the sportsmanship displayed.

"That young man stays to an unearthly hour every night, Zona," said father. "What does your mother say about it?" "Well, dad," Zona replied, "she says that men haven't changed a bit."

With the opening of school again there comes the renewal of many former activities among which we include the publishing of the High School Mirror. The senior class has again taken over this task and will endeavor to make it as successful as the publication of former classes.

The classes have been organized and the officers for the year have been elected as follows: Freshmen, Pres. Ernest Parrish, Sophomore, Pres. Vernon Waterman, vice-pres., Harr Lomax, secretary-treasurer, Lenore Dyer, Junior, Pres. Arloutine Robinson, vice-pres., Lawrence Winslow, secy.-treas., Ernest Adleman, Senior, Pres. Leo Smith, vice-pres., Norman Rubner, secy.-treas., Hugh Fraser.

Miss Irma Buchner entertained a group of young people at a delightful lawn party at her home Friday, Sept. 15. Music and games offered the entertainment for the evening, at the close of which refreshments were served.

Among new students this week are Orval and Roy Silvey and Craig Percy who returned to school Monday, and Ernest Carson who came Wednesday.

Twenty young people chaperoned by the Misses Yenny and Derby enjoyed a weiner and marshmallow roast on the Umatilla butte last Saturday evening. The affair was in compliment to Miss Lucille Sullivan whose birthday was celebrated last week.
