Albert C. Hanson, who for the past seven months has been employed at the Blue Front Grocery, left Sunday evening last for points in the Dakotas and Minnesota, and will later return to his home in Sauk Center, Minn.

J. T. Arnason, editor of the Pilot Rock Record, passed through Hermiston Saturday on his way to the coast.

M. W. Sharrard of Willows, Oregon, was a business visitor in Hermiston Saturday in connection with his store property here.

H. I. Todd purchased a Dodge coupe from the local dealers in Pendleton last Saturday.

POULTRY SUPPLY

We have a full line of Baby Chick Feed, the first on the market at right prices, also a line of other feeds.

We will buy all of your eggs and will pay you cash or trade, and can handle all of your chickens. It is our intention to try and build up a trade at Hermiston to handle all the chickens and eggs produced in this section of the country and pay the best market price. So if you have anything in this line to offer get our prices before you sell. We also buy Veal and Dressed Pork, Hides and Pelts. We make 2 or 3 trips to Pendleton every week. If you have anything going call 341 and we will take care of it for you, either going or coming.

Among the teachers who spent yesterday here was Miss Maple Dell Moore, a Roseburg girl, who is employed at Hermiston. Sunday's Pendleton Tribune.

Hermiston is reaching out for merited publicity that rebounds to her credit, when she puts on a tree planting campaign. Hermiston is all right too, in many other ways.—Athena Press.

Mrs. A. F. Belsse was a Pendleton visitor Tuesday of last week.

Lovely dances, snappy music, pretty girls, beautiful costumes, all this and more at the Melba Callahan Show.—Adv.

Miss Edith Hoffman, home demonstration agent, according to reports, will visit Hermiston this week. Many Umatilla county women are making hats under the direction of Miss Hoffman. Miss Hoffman says that much interest is shown in this connection. She visited Weston last week giving instructions in millinery. This week she will visit Hermiston, Holdman and Westland for the same purpose.

Bernard Mainwaring, ex-editor of the Hermiston Herald, was in town Saturday. Mr. Mainwaring is at present editor of the Milton Eagle.

Carl Stewart, a former resident of the project, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Stewart, a few days last week. He was on his way to Los Angeles where he has accepted a position with the Hammond Lumber Company.

State Senator Henry Taylor, Jas. Maloney, president of the Inland Empire bank, W. E. Brooks, president of the Taylor Hardware Co., and August Joderlan, a wheat rancher, all of Pendleton, were Hermiston visitors Saturday.

Don't put off till next week what you ought to have done last month. If you have thought of building a garage, chicken house, barn, or repairing the house, get busy and get it over with. Our lumber will be a real assistance to you. And you will know that you are getting the best of building material.
