Yucatan Likes Wheat Bread.
Corn tortilla, for ages the favorite bread of Yucatecans, is threatened by a modern competitor. Little baking is done in the homes of Yucatan, the frying pan being the standard implement of cookery. The simple but wholesome Mexican tortilla is an article of general diet, but wheat bread is now being widely consumed. The wheat bread supply of the entire peninsula of Yucatan originates in bakeries and consists principally of long, sour French loaves. According to Consul O. G. Marsh of Progreso about four years ago a progressive Yucatecan opened a modern bakery in Merida equipped with American fresh-chinery and using American fresh yeast. This bakery enjoys remarkable success. A great variety of rolls, biscuits, etc., raised with baking powder and containing lard and sugar are purchasable.

Wanted a Change.
Watkins came in from the office and tossed his hat over on the table.
"Hello, Mary," he called.
Mary came from the kitchen to give him her wifely kiss of greeting.
"Here, dearie, I brought you a box of candy tonight," Watkins announced.
Mary was nonplussed for a moment.
"Why, Jimmie, this isn't our wedding anniversary!" she exclaimed.
"And it isn't my birthday--and it isn't-- Oh, Jim, you're courting me again!"
"Nope," Jim denied casually. "I just thought a little something sweet would taste good!"

No Encore Wanted.
"And," concluded the Sunday school teacher, "if you are a good boy, Tommy, you will go to heaven and have a gold crown on your head."
"Not much," said Tommy. "I had one of those things put on a tooth once."

PLAN TO HARNESS VESUVIUS

Italy Would Direct Flow of Lava and Utilize Heat of the Big Volcano.

In the future great volcanoes can throw out molten fire and lava and attract no more attention than the passing of a motor car, if plans now being considered by scientists of Italy are carried out.

After the gigantic accomplishments of the engineers in the World war such a scheme does not sound impossible and plans are being seriously considered to tunnel mountains known to be dangerous in such a manner that a sudden volcanic activity will only result in the gas and lava being carried away from settled sections and valuable property.

Especially are such plans being worked out for Etna and Vesuvius, the two most destructive volcanoes.
And with the plan goes another providing for harnessing the heat for industrial purposes.
Premier Mussolini has been investigating the plan and now, it is said, no obstacle remains except the expense.
It is hoped that some way may be found whereby Italy will be relieved from dependence upon the outside world for fuel and the power that fuel produces.

If experimental boring is tried it will probably be on Etna, because that volcano, being on an island, can do less damage than Vesuvius if stirred to unusual activity by man's efforts.

Cutting tunnels through the mountainside would be simple in its earlier stages, and would become complicated only when the heat, on approach to the eternal fires, became unendurable to the workers. Explosives might do the rest.

SWEETS FOR THE CHILDREN

Moderate Allowances of Sugar, Candy and Ice Cream That Keeps Them Healthy.

The following may be regarded as a moderate allowance of sugar or candy for a healthy child of nine or ten years: Of sugar on cereals, one even teaspoonful at breakfast or supper and not more than this amount on fresh or stewed fruit; of candy, one piece with the midday meal; of ice cream or fruit ices, one good tablespoonful once a week, possibly twice a week in summer; of ice cream sodas, not more than one a week.

Besides these things a child will get in his other food, such as gingerbread cookies and plain cakes, and in his custard and puddings an additional amount of sugar, so that his total daily allowance will probably be equal to two tablespoonfuls of sugar. So long as this is not exceeded it is not likely that any bad effect will follow. But when a child is allowed to help himself the constant tendency is that the amount is gradually increased to two or three times the quantities specified, and even then the child is no better satisfied--often less so. He has acquired the sweet habit and food does not taste sweet unless these larger amounts are constantly added.--Dr. L.
Emmett Holt in the Delineator.

Chapels in Hotels.
Many years ago, a group of commercial travelers called "The Gleaners" organized a movement for placing copies of the Scriptures in the guest rooms of hotels. It was from the start a very real missionary enterprise, and has been productive of excellent results.

One of New York's leading hotel men, the owner of a number of big establishments, announced a few days ago his purpose of going even a step further. Observation during many years of experience has impressed him with the fact that strangers who put up at hotels in our big cities are at a disadvantage as far as church-going is concerned. He has, therefore, decided to erect, in each of his large establishments, a chapel as a place where his guests may worship. "If the patron will not go to church," he urges, "we shall bring the church to him."

All is Vanity.
"Now, just as I was beginning to think that I could become a raving beauty by spreading clay on my face once or twice a week, here comes a writer in a magazine who says the claims for it are absurd, and it does no good at all to the skin," said a Columbus beauty who likes to keep up with all the fads for improvement.

"Oh, well," said her companion, "there is one comfort: You can save the money you have been spending on clay and buy face creams."--Columbus Dispatch.

A Trusting Nature.
She was a countrywoman, and traveling by train was something new to her. She sat down on a seat in the station, and after waiting for two hours was approached by the station-master, who inquired where she was going.

"But the train's just gone," he said when she told him.
"Dear, dear! I thought the whole consarn moved," replied the old woman.

Handy Man.
An inmate of a certain penal institution recently received a call from the warden, who said:
"I understand you got in jail on account of a glowing mining prospectus."

"Yes," admitted the gentlemanly prisoner. "I was quite optimistic."
"Well," continued the warden, "the governor wants a report on conditions in this jail. Write it."--Harper's.

Billiard Balls From Beans.
Billiard balls at present being grown at the Royal Botanic gardens, in England, are the most recently discovered use of the soy bean, whose natural home is in the Far East. But billiard balls are not the only uses to which the soy can be put. It can be utilized as: A substitute for knife and brella handles, buckles and beads. As an ingredient of cheese, flour, table oil, cake, sauce and soap. In making substantiating and illuminating oil, glycerine, paint, varnish, celluloid, printing ink, waterproofs, explosives and linoleum.

THIS MADE TRIP BETTER

Fall of the Big Brute's Suitcase Gratified the Other Passengers Very Much.

They got on the train together--a gruff, pluck-shouldered giant of a know-it-all husband who didn't help her up the steps. To his credit it must be admitted that he was carrying their heavy suitcase--though maybe due to his absent-mindedness or the presence of a quart in it. He lifted the suitcase to put it on the steel luggage rack overhead. And he grunted that he knew what he was doing when she suggested a ~~few~~ that the heavy suitcase might break down the rack. She started to ~~help~~ but he snapped, cutting her off. They settled in their day-coach seats.

The little woman uncomfortably kept glancing up at the sack and unconsciously ~~grinding~~ his shoulder as if preparing it for a blow. Again she ventured, "Dear, I'm afraid--" "Mind your own business; it'll hold," he growled.

Bang! The words were no sooner out of his mouth than down came the suitcase. It ~~crashed~~ squarely on his head, crushing his new derby hat. The rest of the ~~journey~~ was pleasant for the other passengers.--Hawatha (Kas.) World.
